PREFACE.

THIS book aims to present both an analysis of Luther's Small Catechism and a clear, concise, yet reasonably full explanation of its contents. It is an attempt, upon the basis of twenty years' experience and a study of the literature of the subject, to meet the peculiar wants of the catechetical class in our Lutheran Church in America. The object of the book is twofold: first, to furnish an outline of teaching which the pastor may use as a guide in his oral explanation and questioning; and secondly, to furnish a sufficiently complete summary by means of which the catechumens may review the lesson and fix its salient points in their minds. No text-book can, of course, adequately supply the parenetical side of the catechetical instruction or take the place of the living exposition by the pastor. But it can and should support his work, so that what he explains at one meeting may not be forgotten before the next meeting, but may be fixed in the minds of the catechumens by study at home.

Since the task of the pastor in catechization is not only to impart religious instruction, but to impart it on the basis of that priceless heritage of our Church, Luther's Small Catechism, the explanation here offered follows the catechism closely. The words of the catechism are printed in heavy-faced type and are used as headings wherever possible; and thus the words of the catechism may be traced as a thread running through the entire explanation.

Wherever he deemed it necessary, the author has added a fuller explanation of the text of the catechism than that which Luther gives, and has supplemented its contents with such additional matter as the needs of our catechumens require. He does not agree with those catechetical writers who maintain that the pastor, in his catechization, must confine himself to an explanation of Luther's explanation. Such a principle would exclude from the catechetical class much which our catechumens should be taught. But all such additional matters are introduced under an appropriate head as an organic part of the whole explanation, thus preserving its unity.

This book is written in the thetical form instead of the traditional form of questions and answers. There is nothing in the nature of catechization which would require the use of the interrogative form in such a text-book, and accordingly the thetical form has for years been employed by numerous writers of text-books for the catechetical class in Germany. While questions have an important place in catechetical instruction, the matter and not the form is the vital thing. Catechization is not a method of instruction by means of questions and answers. Neither the original meaning of the word nor the history of catechization justifies such a definition. (See my article, "A Brief History of Catechization," in the Lutheran Church Review, January, 1902; comp. v. Zezschwitz: System der christl.-kirchl. Katechetik, vol. i., pp. 17 seq., and vol. ii., 2. 1., pp. 3 seq.) And since Christian truth is not something to be brought forth from the mind of the child by means of questions, but something divinely revealed and hence to be communicated to the child, the most natural form in which to set it before him in a text-book is the thetical. Luther's catechism itself is, indeed, in the form of questions and answers. But his catechism is confessional as well as didactic, and its words, memorized by the catechumen, are to become a personal confession of faith. The explanations of a text-book, on the other hand, are not to be memorized, but are meant to aid the catechumen in grasping the thoughts of the catechism. For this purpose, the thetical form is better than the interrogative, because the explanation is not continually broken by questions, and is thus better adapted to give the catechumens a connected idea of the doctrines taught.

Each chapter of this explanation is followed by a number of questions. After the pastor has explained a lesson at one meeting, the catechumens should prepare themselves to give an answer to the printed questions in their own words at the next meeting. The pastor may, of course, substitute other questions, assign additional ones, or eliminate some. The proof passages for the teachings set forth are cited in the margin. The more important passages, particularly those which the catechumens may be expected to memorize, are specially indicated by a dagger (†), and are printed in full at the end of the chapter. The use of a Scripture lesson is, of course, optional with the pastor. One is indicated, however, for each chapter, and may be read in class or be assigned to the catechumens to be read at home. The Scriptural illustrations are cited for the convenience of the pastor in his oral exposition. The division into chapters has been regulated by the subject-matter, and will, it is hoped, aid in the survey of the contents of the book as a whole. It is not intended that each chapter shall necessarily constitute one lesson. Some lessons will doubtless include only a part of a chapter, while others will include several chapters, as the pastor may determine.

While the author, in the preparation of this explanation of Luther's catechism, has gone his own way, careful consideration has been given to the voice of those whose study of the problems involved entitled them to be heard. Luther's other catechetical writings, the standard theoretical works on Catechetics, and numerous monographs have been constantly at hand. Explanations of the catechism for the use of pastors and teachers have been freely consulted,—among others, those of Schuetze, Fricke, Mehliss, Kahle, Zuck, Kaftan, v. Zezschwitz, Palmer, Harnack, Nissen, Hempel, Schultze, Th. Hardeland, O. Hardeland, Nebe, Buchrucker, and Cremer. Acknowledgment is due also to the authors of numerous American and German text-books and helps for the catechetical class, whose works have been carefully scanned, in order that the fruits of past experience and the best results of former labors in this field might, if possible, be embodied in this work.

May the Lord bless this explanation of Luther's Small Catechism to the upbuilding of His kingdom and the glory of His name.

THE SMALL CATECHISM

DR. MARTIN LUTHER

LUTHER'S PREFACE.

*Martin Luther to all faithful and godly Pastors and Preachers:
Grace, Mercy and Peace, in Jesus Christ, our Lord!*

THE deplorable condition in which I found religious affairs during a recent visitation of the congregations, has impelled me to publish this Catechism, or statement of the Christian doctrine, after having prepared it in very brief and simple terms. Alas! what misery I beheld! The people, especially those who live in the villages, seem to have no knowledge whatever of Christian doctrine, and many of the pastors are ignorant and incompetent teachers. And, nevertheless, they all maintain that they are Christians, that they have been baptized, and that they have received the Lord's Supper. Yet they cannot recite the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, or the Ten Commandments; they live as if they were irrational creatures, and now that the Gospel has come to them, they grossly abuse their Christian liberty.

Ye bishops! what answer will ye give to Christ for having so shamefully neglected the people, and paid no attention to the duties of your office? I invoke no evil on your heads. But you withhold the cup in the Lord's Supper, insist on the observance of your human laws, and yet, at the same time, do not take the least interest in teaching the people the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, the Ten Commandments, or any other part of the word of God. Woe unto you!

Wherefore I beseech you in the Name of God, my beloved brethren, who are pastors or preachers, to engage heartily in the discharge of the duties of your office, to have mercy on the people who are entrusted to your care, and to assist us in introducing the Catechism among them, and especially among the young. And if any of you do not possess the necessary qualifications, I beseech you to take at least the following forms, and read them, word for word, to the people, on this wise:—

In the first place; let the preacher take the utmost care to avoid all changes or variations in the text and wording of the Ten Commandments, the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, the Sacraments, etc. Let him, on the contrary, take each of the forms respectively, adhere to it, and repeat it anew, year after year. For young and inexperienced people cannot be successfully instructed, unless we adhere to the same text or the same forms of expression. They easily become confused, when the teacher at one time employs a certain form of words and expressions, and, at another, apparently with a view to make improvements, adopts a different form. The result of such a course will be, that all the time and labor which we have expended will be lost.

This point was well understood by our venerable fathers, who were accustomed to use the same words in teaching the Lord's Prayer, the Creed, and the Ten Commandments. We, too, should follow this plan when we teach these things, particularly in the case of the young and ignorant, not changing a single syllable, nor introducing any variations when, year after year, we recur to these forms and recite them anew before our hearers.

Choose, therefore, the form of words which best pleases you, and adhere to it perpetually. When you preach in the presence of intelligent and learned men, you are at liberty to exhibit your knowledge and skill, and may present and discuss these subjects in all the varied modes which are at your command. But when you are teaching the young, retain the same form and manner without change; teach them, first of all, the Ten Commandments, the Creed, the Lord's Prayer, etc., always presenting the same words of the text, so that those who learn can repeat them after you, and retain them in the memory.

But if any refuse to receive your instructions, tell them plainly that they deny Christ and are not Christians; such persons shall not be admitted to the Lord's Table, nor present a child for baptism, nor enjoy any of our Christian privileges, but are to be sent back to the pope and his agents, and, indeed, to Satan himself. Their parents and employers should, besides, refuse to furnish them with food and drink, and notify them that the government was disposed to banish from the country all persons of such a rude and intractable character.

For although we cannot, and should not, compel them to exercise faith, we ought, nevertheless, to instruct the great mass with all diligence, so that they may know how to distinguish between right and wrong in their conduct towards those with whom they live, or among whom they desire to earn their living. For whoever desires to reside in a city, and enjoy the rights and privileges which its laws confer, is also bound to know and obey those laws. God grant that such persons may become sincere believers! But if they remain dishonest and vicious, let them at least withhold from public view the vices of their hearts.

In the second place; when those whom you are instructing have become familiar with the words of the text, it is time to teach them to understand the meaning of those words, so that they may become acquainted with the object and purport of the lesson. Then proceed to another of the following forms, or, at your pleasure, choose any other which is brief, and adhere strictly to the same words and forms of expression in the text, without altering a single syllable; besides, allow yourself ample time for the lessons. For it is not necessary that you should, on the same occasion, proceed from the beginning to the end of the several parts; it will be more profitable if you present them separately, in regular succession. When the people have, for instance, at length correctly understood the First Commandment, you may proceed to the Second, and so continue. By neglecting to observe this mode, the people will be overburdened, and be prevented from understanding and retaining in memory any considerable part of the matter communicated to them.

In the third place; when you have thus reached the end of this Short Catechism, begin anew with the Large Catechism, and by means of it furnish the people with fuller and more comprehensive explanations. Explain here at large every Commandment, every Petition, and, indeed, every part, showing the duties which they severally impose, and both the advantages which follow the performance of those duties, and also the dangers and losses which result from the neglect of them. Insist in an especial manner on such Commandments or other parts as seem to be most of all misunderstood or neglected by your people. It will, for example, be necessary that you should enforce with the utmost earnestness the Seventh Commandment, which treats of stealing, when you are teaching workmen, dealers and even farmers and servants, inasmuch as many of these are guilty of various dishonest and thievish practices. So, too, it will be your duty to explain and apply the Fourth Commandment with great diligence, when you are teaching children and uneducated adults, and to urge them to observe order, to be faithful, obedient and peaceable, as well as to adduce numerous instances mentioned in the Scriptures, which show that God punished such as were guilty in these things, and blessed the obedient.

Here, too, let it be your great aim to urge magistrates and parents to rule wisely, and to educate the children, admonishing them, at the same time, that such duties are imposed on them, and showing them how grievously they sin if they neglect them. For in such a case they overthrow and lay waste alike the kingdom of God and the kingdom of the world, acting as if they were the worst enemies both of God and man. And show them very plainly the shocking evils of which they are the authors, when they refuse their aid in training up children to be pastors, preachers, writers, etc., and set forth that on account of such sins God will inflict an awful punishment upon them. It is, indeed, necessary to preach on these things; for parents and magistrates are guilty of sins in this respect, which are so great that there are no terms in which they can be described. And truly, Satan has a cruel design in fostering these evils.

Finally; inasmuch as the people are now relieved from the tyranny of the pope, they refuse to come to the Lord's Table, and treat it with contempt. On this point, also, it is very necessary that you should give them instructions, while, at the same time, you are to be guided by the following principles: That we are to compel no one to believe, or to receive the Lord's Supper; that we are not to establish any laws on this point, or appoint the time and place; but that we should so preach as to influence the people, without any law adopted by us, to urge, and, as it were, to compel us who are pastors, to administer the Lord's Supper to them. Now this object may be attained, if we address them in the following manner: It is to be feared that he who does not desire to receive the Lord's Supper at least three or four times during the year, despises the Sacrament, and is no Christian. So, too, he is no Christian, who neither believes nor obeys the Gospel; for Christ did not say: "Omit or despise this," but "This do ye, as oft as ye drink it," etc. He commands that this should be done, and by no means be neglected and despised. He says: "This do."

Now he who does not highly value the Sacrament, shows thereby that he has no sin, no flesh, no devil, no world, no death, no danger, no hell; that is to say, he does not believe that such evils exist, although he may be deeply immersed in them, and completely belong to the devil. On the other hand, he needs no grace, no life, no Paradise, no heaven, no Christ, no God, no good thing. For if he believed that he was involved in such evils, and that he was in need of such blessings, he could not refrain from receiving the Sacrament, wherein aid is afforded against such evils, and, again, such blessings are bestowed. It will not be necessary to compel him by the force of any law to approach the Lord's Table; he will hasten to it of his own accord, will compel himself to come, and indeed urge you to administer the Sacrament to him.

Hence, you are by no means to adopt any compulsory law in this case, as the Pope has done. Let it simply be your aim to set forth distinctly the advantages and losses, the wants and the benefits, the dangers and the blessings, which are to be considered in connection with the Sacrament; the people will, doubtless, then seek it without urgent demands on your part. If they still refuse to come forward, let them choose their own ways, and tell them that those who do not regard their own spiritual misery, and do not desire the gracious help of God, belong to Satan. But if you do not give such solemn admonitions, or if you adopt odious compulsory laws on the subject, it is your own fault if the people treat the Sacrament with contempt. Will they not necessarily be slothful, if you are silent and sleep? Therefore consider the subject seriously, ye Pastors and Preachers! Our office has now assumed a very different character from that which it bore under the Pope; it is now of a very grave nature, and is very salutary in its influence. It consequently subjects us to far greater burdens and labors, dangers and temptations, while it brings with it an inconsiderable reward, and very little gratitude in the world. But Christ himself will be our reward, if we labor with fidelity. May He grant such mercy unto us who is the Father of all grace, to whom be given thanks and praises through Christ, our Lord, for ever! Amen.

WITTENBERG, A. D. 1529.

THE SMALL CATECHISM.

PART I.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS.

In the plain form in which they are to be taught by the head of a family.

THE FIRST COMMANDMENT.

I am the Lord thy God. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

[Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them; for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me, and keep my commandments.]

What is meant by this Commandment?

Answer. We should fear, love, and trust in God above all things.

THE SECOND COMMANDMENT.

Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

What is meant by this Commandment?

Ans. We should so fear and love God as not to curse, swear, conjure, lie, or deceive, by His Name, but call upon Him in every time of need, and worship Him with prayer, praise, and thanksgiving.

THE THIRD COMMANDMENT.

Remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy.

[Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work ; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God : in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates : for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day ; wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.]

What is meant by this Commandment ?

Ans. We should so fear and love God as not to despise His Word and the preaching of the Gospel, but deem it holy, and willingly hear and learn it.

THE FOURTH COMMANDMENT.

Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

What is meant by this Commandment ?

Ans. We should so fear and love God as not to despise nor displease our parents and superiors, but honor, serve, obey, love, and esteem them.

THE FIFTH COMMANDMENT.

Thou shalt not kill.

What is meant by this Commandment ?

Ans. We should so fear and love God as not to do our neighbor any bodily harm or injury, but rather assist and comfort him in danger and want.

THE SIXTH COMMANDMENT.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

What is meant by this Commandment ?

Ans. We should so fear and love God as to be chaste and pure in our words and deeds, each one also loving and honoring his wife or her husband.

THE SEVENTH COMMANDMENT.

Thou shalt not steal.

What is meant by this Commandment?

Ans. We should so fear and love God as not to rob our neighbor of his money or property, nor bring it into our possession by unfair dealing or fraudulent means, but rather assist him to improve and protect it.

THE EIGHTH COMMANDMENT.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

What is meant by this Commandment?

Ans. We should so fear and love God as not deceitfully to belie, betray, slander, nor raise injurious reports against our neighbor, but apologize for him, speak well of him, and put the most charitable construction on all his actions.

THE NINTH COMMANDMENT.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house.

What is meant by this Commandment?

Ans. We should so fear and love God as not to desire by craftiness to gain possession of our neighbor's inheritance or home, or to obtain it under the pretext of a legal right, but be ready to assist and serve him in the preservation of his own.

THE TENTH COMMANDMENT.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

What is meant by this Commandment?

Ans. We should so fear and love God as not to alienate our neighbor's wife from him, entice away his servants, nor let loose his cattle, but use our endeavors that they may remain and discharge their duty to him.

What does God declare concerning all these Commandments?

Ans. He says: I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep my commandments.

What is meant by this declaration?

Ans. God threatens to punish all those who transgress these commandments. We should, therefore, dread His displeasure, and not act contrarily to these commandments. But He promises grace and every blessing to all who keep them. We should, therefore, love and trust in Him, and cheerfully do what He has commanded us.

PART II.

THE CREED.

In the plain form in which it is to be taught by the head of a family.

FIRST ARTICLE.—OF CREATION.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

What is meant by this Article?

Ans. I believe that God has created me and all that exists; that He has given and still preserves to me my body and soul with all my limbs and senses, my reason and all the faculties of my mind, together with my raiment, food, home, and family, and all my property; that He daily provides me abundantly with all the necessaries of life, protects me from all danger, and preserves me and guards me against all evil; all which He does out of pure, paternal, and divine goodness and mercy, without any merit or worthiness in me; for all which I am in duty bound to thank, praise, serve, and obey Him. This is most certainly true.

SECOND ARTICLE.—OF REDEMPTION.

And in Jesus Christ His only Son, our Lord ; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary ; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried ; He descended into hell ; the third day He rose again from the dead ; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty ; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

What is meant by this Article ?

Ans. I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true man, born of the Virgin Mary, is my Lord ; who has redeemed me, a lost and condemned creature, secured and delivered me from all sins, from death, and from the power of the devil, not with silver and gold, but with His holy and precious blood, and with His innocent sufferings and death ; in order that I might be His, live under Him in His kingdom, and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness ; even as He is risen from the dead, and lives and reigns to all eternity. This is most certainly true.

THIRD ARTICLE.—OF SANCTIFICATION.

I believe in the Holy Ghost ; the holy Christian Church, the Communion of Saints ; the Forgiveness of sins ; the Resurrection of the body ; and the Life everlasting. Amen.

What is meant by this Article ?

Ans. I believe that I cannot by my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ my Lord, or come to Him ; but the Holy Ghost has called me through the Gospel, enlightened me by His gifts, and sanctified and preserved me in the true faith ; in like manner as He calls, gathers, enlightens, and sanctifies the whole Christian Church on earth, and preserves it in union with Jesus Christ in the true faith ; in which Christian Church He daily forgives abundantly all my sins, and the sins of all believers, and will raise up me and all the dead at the last day, and will grant everlasting life to me and to all who believe in Christ. This is most certainly true.

PART III.

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

In the plain form in which it is to be taught by the head of a family.

INTRODUCTION.

Our Father Who art in heaven.

What is meant by this Introduction?

Ans. God would thereby affectionately encourage us to believe that He is truly our Father, and that we are His children indeed, so that we may call upon Him with all cheerfulness and confidence, even as beloved children entreat their affectionate parent.

FIRST PETITION.

Hallowed be Thy Name.

What is meant by this Petition?

Ans. The Name of God is indeed holy in itself; but we pray in this petition that it may be hallowed also by us.

How is this effected?

Ans. When the Word of God is taught in its truth and purity, and we, as the children of God, lead holy lives, in accordance with it; to this may our blessed Father in heaven help us! But whoever teaches and lives otherwise than as God's Word prescribes, profanes the Name of God among us; from this preserve us, Heavenly Father!

SECOND PETITION.

Thy kingdom come.

What is meant by this Petition?

Ans. The kingdom of God comes indeed of itself, without our prayer; but we pray in this petition that it may come unto us also.

When is this effected?

Ans. When our Heavenly Father gives us His Holy Spirit, so that by His grace we believe His holy Word, and live a godly life here on earth, and in heaven for ever.

THIRD PETITION.

Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

What is meant by this Petition?

Ans. The good and gracious will of God is done indeed without our prayer; but we pray in this petition that it may be done by us also.

When is this effected?

Ans. When God frustrates and brings to naught every evil counsel and purpose, which would hinder us from hallowing the Name of God, and prevent His kingdom from coming to us,—such as the will of the devil, of the world, and of our own flesh; and when He strengthens us, and keeps us steadfast in His Word, and in the faith, even unto our end. This is His gracious and good will.

FOURTH PETITION.

Give us this day our daily bread.

What is meant by this Petition?

Ans. God gives indeed without our prayer even to the wicked also their daily bread; but we pray in this petition that He would make us sensible of His benefits, and enable us to receive our daily bread with thanksgiving.

What is implied in the words: "Our daily bread"?

Ans. All things that pertain to the wants and the support of this present life; such as food, raiment, money, goods, house and land, and other property; a believing spouse and good children; trustworthy servants and faithful magistrates; favorable seasons, peace and health; education and honor; true friends, good neighbors, and the like.

FIFTH PETITION.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

What is meant by this Petition?

Ans. We pray in this petition, that our Heavenly Father would not regard our sins, nor deny us our requests on account of them; for we are not worthy of anything for which we pray, and have not merited it; but that He would grant us all things through grace, although we daily commit much sin, and deserve chastisement alone. We will therefore, on our part, both heartily forgive, and also readily do good to those who may injure or offend us.

SIXTH PETITION.

And lead us not into temptation.

What is meant by this Petition?

Ans. God indeed tempts no one to sin; but we pray in this petition that God would so guard and preserve us, that the devil, the world, and our own flesh, may not deceive us, nor lead us into error and unbelief, despair, and other great and shameful sins; and that, though we may be thus tempted, we may, nevertheless, finally prevail and gain the victory.

SEVENTH PETITION.

But deliver us from evil.

What is meant by this Petition?

Ans. We pray in this petition, as in a summary, that our Heavenly Father would deliver us from all manner of evil, whether it affect the body or soul, property or character, and, at last, when the hour of death shall arrive, grant us a happy end, and graciously take us from this world of sorrow to Himself in heaven.

CONCLUSION.

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

What is meant by the word "Amen"?

Ans. That I should be assured that such petitions are acceptable to our Heavenly Father, and are heard by Him; for He Himself has commanded us to pray in this manner, and has promised that He will hear us. Amen, Amen, that is, Yea, yea, it shall be so.

 PART IV.

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY BAPTISM.

In the plain form in which it is to be taught by the head of a family.

I. What is Baptism?

Ans. Baptism is not simply water, but it is the water comprehended in God's command, and connected with God's Word.

What is that Word of God?

Ans. It is that which our Lord Jesus Christ spoke, as it is recorded in the last chapter of Matthew, verse 19: "Go ye, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost."

II. What gifts or benefits does Baptism confer?

Ans. It works forgiveness of sins, delivers from death and the devil, and confers everlasting salvation on all who believe, as the Word and promise of God declare.

What are such words and promises of God?

Ans. Those which our Lord Jesus Christ spoke, as they are recorded in the last chapter of Mark, verse 16: "He that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not, shall be damned."

III. How can water produce such great effects?

Ans. It is not the water indeed that produces these effects, but the Word of God which accompanies and is connected with the water, and our faith, which relies on the Word of God connected with the water. For the water, without the Word of God, is simply water and no baptism. But when connected with the Word of God, it is a baptism, that is, a gracious water of life, and a “washing of regeneration” in the Holy Ghost; as St. Paul says to Titus, in the third chapter, verses 5–8: “According to His mercy He saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; which He shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour; that being justified by His grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. This is a faithful saying.”

IV. What does such baptizing with water signify?

Ans. It signifies that the old Adam in us is to be drowned and destroyed by daily sorrow and repentance, together with all sins and evil lusts; and that again the new man should daily come forth and rise, that shall live in the presence of God in righteousness and purity forever.

Where is it so written?

Ans. St. Paul, in the Epistle to the Romans, chapter 6, verse 4, says: “We are buried with Christ by Baptism into death; that like as He was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.”

OF CONFESSION.

What is Confession?

Ans. Confession consists of two parts: the one is, that we confess our sins; the other, that we receive absolution or forgiveness through the pastor as of God himself, in no wise doubting, but firmly believing that our sins are thus forgiven before God in heaven.

What sins ought we to confess?

Ans. In the presence of God we should acknowledge ourselves guilty of all manner of sins, even of those which we do not ourselves perceive; as we do in the Lord's Prayer. But in the presence of the pastor we should confess those sins alone of which we have knowledge, and which we feel in our hearts.

Which are these?

Ans. Here reflect on your condition, according to the Ten Commandments, namely: Whether you are a father or mother, a son or daughter, a master or mistress, a manservant or maidservant—whether you have been disobedient, unfaithful, slothful—whether you have injured any one by words or actions—whether you have stolen, neglected, or wasted aught, or done other evil.

PART V.

THE SACRAMENT OF THE ALTAR,

OR, THE LORD'S SUPPER.

In the plain form in which it is to be taught by the head of a family.

What is the Sacrament of the Altar?

Ans. It is the true Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, under the bread and wine, given unto us Christians to eat and to drink, as it was instituted by Christ Himself.

Where is it so written?

Ans. The Holy Evangelists, Matthew, Mark, and Luke, together with St. Paul, write thus:

“Our Lord Jesus Christ, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread: and when He had given thanks, He brake it, and gave it to His disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my Body, which is given for you: this do, in remembrance of Me.

“After the same manner also He took the cup, when He had supped, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it: this cup is the new testament in my Blood, which is shed for you, for the remission of sins: this do, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me.”

What benefits are derived from such eating and drinking?

Ans. They are pointed out in these words: "given and shed for you, for the remission of sins." Namely, through these words, the remission of sins, life and salvation are granted unto us in the Sacrament. For where there is remission of sins, there are also life and salvation.

How can the bodily eating and drinking produce such great effects?

Ans. The eating and the drinking, indeed, do not produce them, but the words which stand here, namely: "given, and shed for you, for the remission of sins." These words are, besides the bodily eating and drinking, the chief things in the Sacrament: and he who believes these words, has that which they declare and set forth, namely, the remission of sins.

Who is it, then, that receives this Sacrament worthily?

Ans. Fasting and bodily preparation are indeed a good external discipline; but he is truly worthy and well prepared who believes these words, "given and shed for you, for the remission of sins." But he who does not believe these words, or who doubts, is unworthy and unfit; for the words: "FOR YOU," require truly believing hearts.

MORNING AND EVENING PRAYER.

In the plain form in which it is to be taught by the head of a family.

MORNING.

¶ In the Morning, when thou risest, thou shalt say:

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.
Amen.

¶ Then mayest thou say this Prayer:

I give thanks unto Thee, Heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ Thy dear Son, that Thou hast protected me through the night from

In danger and harm; and I beseech Thee to preserve and keep me this day also, from all sin and evil; that in all my thoughts, words, and deeds, I may serve and please Thee: Into Thy hands I commend my body and soul, and all that is mine. Let Thy holy angel have charge concerning me, that the wicked one may have no power over me. Amen.

¶ And then shouldst thou go with joy to thy work, after a Hymn, or the Ten Commandments, or whatever thy devotion may suggest.

EVENING.

¶ In the Evening, when thou goest to bed, thou shalt say:

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

¶ Then mayest thou say this Prayer:

I give thanks unto Thee, Heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ Thy dear Son, that Thou hast this day so graciously protected me, and I beseech Thee to forgive me all my sins, and the wrong which I have done, and by Thy great mercy defend me from all the perils and dangers of this night. Into thy hands I commend my body and soul, and all that is mine. Let Thy holy angel have charge concerning me, that the wicked one may have no power over me. Amen.

BLESSING AND THANKSGIVING AT TABLE.

In the plain form in which they are to be taught by the head of a family.

BEFORE MEAT.

¶ Before meat, the members of the family surrounding the table reverently and with folded hands, there shall be said:

The eyes of all wait upon Thee, O Lord: and Thou givest them their meat in due season. Thou openest Thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

¶ Then shall be said the Lord's Prayer, and after that this Prayer:

O Lord God, Heavenly Father, bless unto us these Thy gifts, which of Thy tender kindness Thou hast bestowed upon us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

AFTER MEAT.

¶ After meat, reverently and with folded hands, there shall be said:

O give thanks unto the Lord, for He is good: for His mercy endureth for ever. He giveth food to all flesh; He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry. The Lord taketh pleasure in them that fear Him; in those that hope in His mercy.

¶ Then shall be said the Lord's Prayer, and after that this Prayer:

We give thanks to Thee, O God, Our Father, for all Thy benefits, through Jesus Christ our Lord, Who with Thee liveth and reigneth, for ever and ever. Amen.

TABLE OF DUTIES.

Or, certain passages of the Scriptures, selected for various orders and conditions of men, wherein their respective duties are set forth.

BISHOPS, PASTORS, AND PREACHERS.

A bishop must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behavior, given to hospitality, apt to teach; not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; one that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; not a novice, but holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.—1 Tim. 3: 2-6; Tit. 1: 9.

WHAT DUTIES HEARERS OWE THEIR BISHOPS.

Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the Gospel should live of the Gospel.—1 Cor. 9: 14. Let him that is taught in the Word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.—Gal. 6: 6. Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially they who labor in word and doctrine. For the Scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, The laborer is worthy of his reward.—1 Tim. 5: 17, 18. Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves; for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy and not with grief; for that is unprofitable for you.—Heb. 13: 17.

MAGISTRATES.

Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God; the powers that be are ordained of God; for rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same; for he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.—Rom. 13:1-4.

WHAT DUTIES SUBJECTS OWE MAGISTRATES.

Render therefore unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's.—Matt. 22:21. Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers, etc. Wherefore we must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience' sake. For this cause pay ye tribute also; for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. Render therefore to all their dues; tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor.—Rom. 13:1, 5. I exhort, therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men; for kings and for all that are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.—1 Tim. 2. Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, etc.—Tit. 3:1. Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king as supreme; or unto governors as unto them that are sent, etc.—1 Pet. 2:13.

HUSBANDS.

Ye husbands, dwell with your wives according to knowledge, giving honor unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.—1 Pet. 3:7. And be not bitter against them.—Col. 3:19.

WIVES.

Wives submit yourselves unto your husbands, as unto the Lord—even as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord; whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.—Eph. 5:22; 1 Pet. 3:6.

PARENTS.

Ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.—Eph. 6:4.

CHILDREN.

Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honor thy father and thy mother; which is the first commandment with promise; that it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.—Eph. 6:1-3.

MALE AND FEMALE SERVANTS AND LABORERS.

Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ; not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but as the servants of Christ doing the will of God from the heart; with good will doing service as to the Lord, and not to men; knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.—Eph. 6 : 5–8.

MASTERS AND MISTRESSES.

Ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with Him.—Eph. 6 : 9.

YOUNG PERSONS IN GENERAL.

Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time.—1 Pet. 5 : 5, 6.

WIDOWS.

She that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day; but she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth.—1 Tim. 5 : 5, 6.

CHRISTIANS IN GENERAL.

Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Herein are comprehended all the commandments.—Rom. 13 : 9, 10. And persevere in prayer for all men.—1 Tim. 2 : 1, 2.

AN EXPLANATION
LUTHER'S SMALL CATECHISM

INTRODUCTION.

CHAPTER I.

THE BIBLE.

THE BIBLE is the inspired and unerring record of what God has revealed to men concerning Himself and the Way of Salvation.¹ Hence, if we ask, "What must I do to be saved?" the answer to our question must be sought in the Bible. It tells us what to believe and what to do in order that we may belong to God's kingdom on earth and in heaven.² It is the only rule and standard of Christian faith and life.

¹II Tim. 3:16.†
Gal. 1:8.

²Matt. 6:33.†
Acts 16:30.†
John 5:39.†

WHY NEEDED. Even without the Bible, men know that there is a Higher Being. Their own conscience tells them that there is a God who will punish them if they do wrong;³ and the works of nature proclaim that there is an Almighty Being who created them.⁴ But the knowledge of God which men gain from their own conscience and from nature is insufficient. Neither nature nor conscience can tell us anything about the Way of Salvation which God has prepared for us in Jesus Christ. It is only from the Bible that we can learn how we shall be saved.

³Rom. 2:14,

⁴Ps. 19:1.†

ITS INSPIRATION. The Bible is the Word of God. It was written by holy men whom God inspired.⁵ It contains knowledge which no man could have discovered by his own power. It foretells events which no uninspired man could have foreseen. It contains teachings so exalted and holy that they could not have originated in the heart of man. It possesses a power such as no merely human book ever did or could possess.⁶

⁵II Pet. 1:21.†

⁶Heb. 4:12.

ITS OBJECT is to make us wise unto salvation.⁷ It is to be a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path⁸ to guide us safely through this world to our heavenly home. It contains all that we need to know and all that we ever shall know in this world concerning God and His will.⁹ It is the final and absolute authority in all matters of religion. We should, therefore, pay most earnest heed to its teachings, believe them with all our heart, and apply them in our lives.

ITS CONTENTS. It consists of sixty-six ‘books,’ written between the years 1500 B. C. and 100 A. D., and contains the History and the Doctrines of the Kingdom of God.

OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS. The Bible consists of two parts: The Old Testament and the New Testament. The Old Testament reaches from Creation to about 400 B. C., and shows how God prepared the world for Christ’s kingdom. The New Testament reaches from the birth of Christ to the end of the world, and shows how Christ came and established His kingdom.

⁹Micah 6:8.†

¹¹John 3:16.†

LAW AND GOSPEL. The Bible contains Law,¹⁰ telling us what we must do, and Gospel,¹¹ telling us how we are to be saved. The Old Testament contains principally Law, and the New Testament contains principally Gospel. But there are Law and Gospel in both. The Gospel in the Old Testament is prophetic. The Old Testament prepared the way for the New; the New Testament is the fulfilment of the Old. With the New Testament, God’s revelation to men was completed; ¹² no further revelation will be given.

The historical books of the Old Testament give an account of the creation of the world and of man, of the entrance of sin and death, of God's covenant with Israel to save them, and of the history of Israel as God's chosen people. The poetical books give the teachings of the Old Testament covenant in prayers, proverbs and hymns. The prophetical books contain many instructions, admonitions and prophecies (especially concerning Christ who should come to save men) which God sent to the Israelites through the prophets. The first four prophets are called the Major Prophets; and the last twelve, the Minor Prophets.

The historical books of the New Testament give an account of the life of our Lord Jesus Christ and of some of His apostles. The didactical books (the epistles or letters) explain the Gospel of Christ more fully, and show how we are to believe in Him aright and live aright. The prophetical book tells in figurative language what shall take place in the Church of Christ up to the time when there shall be new heavens and a new earth.

CANONICAL BOOKS. The sixty-six books enumerated above are inspired, and are called the Canonical Books of the Old and New Testaments. The so-called Apocryphal Books, printed in some editions of the Bible, are not a part of the Bible; they are not inspired.

OUR ENGLISH BIBLE. The Old Testament was originally written in Hebrew, and the New Testament in Greek. Our English Bible is a translation from the Hebrew and the Greek. The English Bible which is in ordinary use is called the Authorized Version, or King James' Version. It is a translation made by a body of learned men and published in England in 1611, during the reign of James I. The Revised Version is an improved translation made by a body of learned men in England and America and published in 1881-1885. The Bible in whole or in part has been translated into more than three hundred languages.

QUESTIONS.—1. What is the Bible? 2. What does it tell us? 3. Why do we need it? 4. Why do we say that the Bible is the Word of God? 5. What is its object? 6. What does it contain? 7. Of what two parts does the Bible consist, and how far do they reach? 8. What do we mean by Law and Gospel, and where are they found? 9. What is the relation between the Old and New Testaments? 10. Name the books of the Old Testament. 11. What do the historical, poetical and prophetical books of the Old Testament contain? 12. Name the books of the New Testament. 13. What do the historical, didactical and prophetical books of the New Testament contain? 14. How many canonical books of the Bible are there? 15. In what languages was the Bible originally written? 16. Tell what you know about the English Bible? 17. Into how many languages has the Bible in whole or in part been translated?

SCRIPTURE VERSES.—II Tim. 3: 16, 17. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

Matt. 6: 33. Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

Acts 16: 30, 31. What must I do to be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

John 5: 39. Search the Scriptures: for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

Ps. 19: 1. The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament showeth his handiwork.

II Pet. 1: 21. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

II Tim. 3: 15. From a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

Prov. 9: 10. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom.

Ps. 119: 105. Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

Michah 6: 8. He hath showed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God.

John 3: 16. God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Heb. 1: 1, 2. God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds.

CHAPTER II.

THE CATECHISM.

THE OBJECT of catechetical instruction is to fit us for communicant membership in the Church. Those who were baptized in infancy are members of the Church; but they are not admitted to the Lord's Supper, and hence do not become communicant members, until they have been instructed and confirmed.

LUTHER'S SMALL CATECHISM is our text-book for catechetical instruction. It is not only the best book for this purpose, but is one of the Confessions of our Church, and should become our personal confession of faith. It is called Luther's Small Catechism, because Luther wrote a larger one also.

THE AUTHOR of our catechism was Dr. Martin Luther (b. 1483, d. 1546), the great Reformer, through whom God effected the Reformation of the Church in the sixteenth century. He began the Reformation with his Ninety-five Theses against the sale of indulgences, contended against the many errors and abuses that had crept into the Church, and preached and taught the pure truth of the Gospel until his death. (Ninety-five Theses, 1517; Translation of the Bible into German, 1522-34; Larger and Smaller Catechisms, 1529; Augsburg Confession adopted 1530.)

THE CATECHISM CONTAINS the principal teachings of the Bible,—those things which we need to know in order to be saved and to lead a right Christian life.¹ It is not meant to displace the Bible, but to fit us to read and study the Bible with greater profit.²

¹Acts 16:30.
²Matt. 6:33.

³John 5:39.

THE FIVE PRINCIPAL PARTS of the catechism are
1. The Ten Commandments. 2. The Creed. 3. The Lord's Prayer. 4. The Sacrament of Holy Baptism. 5. The Sacrament of the Altar.* To these are added Questions on Confession, Morning and Evening Prayers, Thanksgiving before and after Meat, and A Table of Duties.

* Luther says that three things are necessary for every one who would be saved. Like a sick person, 1. He must know what his sickness is. 2. He must know where the medicine is which will cure him. 3. He must desire and seek the medicine, and have it brought to him. Our sickness (sin) is revealed to us by the Ten Commandments. The medicine (God's grace) is made known to us in the Creed. We seek and ask for it in the Lord's Prayer. It is brought to us in the Sacraments.

QUESTIONS.—1. What is the object of catechetical instruction? 2. What is to be said about the relation of baptized children to the Church? 3. What is Luther's Small Catechism, and what should it become for us? 4. Who was the author of our Catechism? 5. What does our Catechism contain? 6. Name the five principal parts of the catechism, and the additions to them.

SCRIPTURE READING.—Paul confesses his Faith, Acts 26.

PART I.
THE TEN COMMANDMENTS.

CHAPTER III.

THE LAW.

The Ten Commandments are called the Moral Law, or more briefly the Law, and sometimes the Decalogue or the Ten Words. They make known to us God's will, which is the law for all His creatures. Each commandment has a negative side, and forbids something; each has also a positive side, and commands or enjoins something.

THE GIVING OF THE LAW. The Law of God was originally written in man's heart at creation.¹ We call that law in the heart, Conscience. After the fall into sin, the conscience became darkened, and men did not always know right from wrong, and fell into gross idolatry.² God, therefore, through Moses at Mount Sinai, gave men His law anew,³ written on two Tables of stone.⁴ He also gave the Israelites national and ceremonial laws. These, being meant for a particular people and a certain era of the world, are no longer binding upon us. But the Moral Law has been expressly confirmed by our Lord Jesus Christ as valid for all time and binding upon all men.⁵

THE SUBSTANCE OF THE LAW is, "Thou shalt love the Lord Thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy mind." and "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

THE PURPOSE OF THE LAW is, 1. To put a check upon wicked men,⁶ 2. To convince us of our sinfulness⁷ and our need of the Saviour,⁸ and 3. To be our rule and guide for Christian conduct.⁹ It is especially with respect to the second purpose here mentioned, that the Ten Commandments were assigned by Luther to the first and not to a later place in his catechism.

THE TWO TABLES. The Ten Commandments may be divided into two parts, called the Two Tables of ¹⁰Exod. 31:18. the Law.¹⁰ The First Table includes the first three commandments, and teaches us our Duty to God. The Second Table includes the last seven commandments, and teaches us our Duty to our Fellow-men.*

* The Ten Commandments are not numbered in the Bible. A two-fold numbering is found among Christians. The first is that which is given in our Catechism, and which is accepted by the majority of Christians. The other numbering makes two commandments of our first (the second being the command not to make any images), and joins our ninth and tenth into one. This makes a difference in the numbering of all the commandments except the first.

QUESTIONS.—1. What other names are given to the Ten Commandments? 2. What do they make known to us? 3. What two sides are there to each commandment? 4. Where was the law of God originally written? 5. Why and when was the Law given anew? 6. Why is the Moral Law binding upon us, while the national and ceremonial laws of Israel are not? 7. What is the substance of the Law? 8. What is the threefold purpose of the Law? 9. Into how many Tables is the Law divided, and what does each Table teach? 10. How many commandments does each Table include?

SCRIPTURE VERSES.—Matt. 22: 37–40. Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

Rom. 3:20. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

Gal. 3:24. Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

John 14:15. If ye love me, keep my commandments.

Matt. 7:12. Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

CHAPTER IV. THE LAWGIVER

I am the Lord thy God.

THESE INTRODUCTORY WORDS show who is the Lawgiver.¹ As earthly kings place their names at the beginning of their decrees to give them authority, so God places His name at the beginning of the commandments in order to make known who gives them, and whose displeasure we shall incur if we disobey them. These introductory words belong not only to the first but to all the commandments.

I Am. By these words God reminds us that He is a Person. He speaks to us. He is not an impersonal God who pervades and is a part of nature. He is above nature and has created it.²

The Lord. The word here translated "Lord" means in the original Hebrew "I AM THAT I AM."³ God thereby declares that He is the One and Only Self-existent,⁴ Eternal,⁵ and Unchangeable Being.⁶ He is the true and living God in contradistinction from all so-called gods.⁷ The name Jehovah or "LORD" is used in the Old Testament Scriptures to designate God as the covenant God of Israel. It signified that He stood in a specially near relation to them as His chosen people. The name has the same comforting meaning for Christians; for they are the New Testament people of God.⁸

Thy God. These words express God's good-will toward us. He is our God who loves⁹ us and cares for us.¹⁰ He said to Israel, "I am the Lord thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage." He has delivered us from the still greater bondage of sin, death, and the devil through His Son Jesus Christ,¹¹ and has a right to expect our gratitude and love.

THE LORD THY GOD. He who gives us these commandments is a Spirit¹² of infinite majesty and goodness. He is:

1. Eternal; He always was and always will be.¹³
2. Unchangeable; He always was and always will be the same.¹⁴
3. Omnipresent; He is present everywhere at the same time and all the time.¹⁵
4. Omniscient; He knows all the past, present, and future, and is acquainted with every thought, desire, and purpose of our hearts.¹⁶

²Gen. 1:1.³Exod. 3:14.†⁴Isa. 44:6.†⁵Ps. 90:1,2.†⁶Mal. 3:6.†⁷Jer. 10:10.⁸Tit. 2:14.†

5. Omnipotent, or Almighty; He is able to do all things which He wills to do.¹⁷

6. Holy; He is perfectly pure, and separate from all that is evil.¹⁸

7. Just; He will bless those who keep His law, and punish those who break it.¹⁹

8. All-wise; He always knows what is the best thing to do, and the best way to do it.²⁰

9. Good; He is Love itself.²¹ He is kind even to the unthankful,²² merciful to the penitent soul for Jesus' sake,²³ and longsuffering toward the impenitent in order to lead them to repentance by His goodness.²⁴

10. Faithful and True; He can be absolutely relied upon to do all that He has promised or threatened.²⁵

Because of the Majesty and Goodness of the Lord our God, we should FEAR and LOVE HIM, and KEEP His commandments.

QUESTIONS.—1. What do the introductory words show? 2. Of what do the words "I am" remind us? 3. What is the meaning of the Hebrew word translated "Lord"? 4. What do the words "thy God" express? 5. From what bondage has God delivered us? 6. Name and define God's attributes? 7. Why should we fear and love God?

SCRIPTURE VERSES.—Exod. 3:14. And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM.

Isa. 44:6. Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his Redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God.

THE FIRST TABLE OF THE LAW.

OUR DUTY TO GOD.

“Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy mind, and with all thy soul.”¹ 1st Matt. 22:37.

CHAPTER V.

THE FIRST COMMANDMENT

GOD,

Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

What is meant by this commandment?

We should fear, love and trust in God above all things.

THE GREAT COMMANDMENT. This is the great commandment of the Law, because it includes all the rest.¹ Obedience to all the commandments must proceed from the love of God which the first commandment requires.² Hence the explanation of the other nine begins with the words, “We should so fear and love God.”

1st Matt. 22:37.

2nd Rom. 13:9,
10.

This Commandment forbids us to worship false gods, and commands us to worship the true God by fearing, loving and trusting in Him above all things.

I. WHAT IS FORBIDDEN.

1. ALL IDOLATRY. “Thou shalt have no other gods.” Idolatry is committed by all who put anything in God’s place, the highest place in the heart. “Whatever we set our heart upon is our god.”

3rd Exod. 32:1-

Ps. 135:15-
17.

Isa. 42:8.

Rom. 1:21-

*Open Idolatry*³ is committed by those who worship imaginary beings, the sun, moon, or stars, animals, dead ancestors, idols made with hands, images,* pictures, the Virgin Mary, saints, angels, the devil, or any other creature.

* When God gave the commandments to Israel. He forbade them to make any graven images or likenesses. God being a Spirit, the making of an image of God would at that period necessarily have resulted in idolatry. But since Christ has come in the flesh and was visible among men, we are permitted to make pictures and images of Him. Luther preached very forcibly against those persons who, during his absence from Wittenberg, destroyed the pictures and images in the churches. He said that we make a picture of Christ in our heart whenever we think of Him, and put pictures of Him in the Bible and other books; and that therefore it is not wrong to place pictures or images of Him in our churches, so long as we do not worship them.

Secret Idolatry is committed by all who put (a) Self,⁴ (b) Fellow-men⁵ or (c) Objects of this world⁶ (money, fame, business, pleasure, etc.) above God, by fearing, loving, or trusting in them more than in God.

2. GODLESSNESS.⁷ Neglect to worship the true God, unbelief, scepticism, superstition, infidelity, and atheism are a transgression of this commandment.

3. DOUBLE SERVICE.⁸ God forbids us to have other gods before or besides Him. He demands our whole heart.

II. WHAT IS COMMANDED.

We should give God the highest place in our hearts, and "fear, love and trust in Him above all things."⁹

1. We should Fear God above All Things.

We should be more afraid of His anger than of anything else in the whole world.¹⁰ Rather than disobey Him, we should be willing to suffer ridicule, persecution, loss of money, property, position, or friends, and even death itself.¹¹

Why. We should fear God above all things, 1. Because He is omniscient, and we cannot hide anything from Him, not even our thoughts.¹² 2. Because He is holy, and hates everything that is evil.¹³ 3. Because He is just, and will punish every sin.¹⁴

How. As Christians, our fear of God should be a child-like and not a slavish fear. Child-like fear is fear mingled with love. We should refrain from evil not simply from fear of punishment, but from fear of offending the God whom we love.¹⁵ "Slavish fear is afraid God will come; child-like fear is afraid He will go away."

2. We should Love God above All Things, "with all our heart, and with all our mind and with all our soul."¹⁶ Our first aim and our highest delight should always be to do God's will.¹⁷ We should be far more anxious to please Him than to please ourselves or any of our fellow-men. We should love Him far more than we love any one else¹⁸ (parents, brothers, sisters, friends, etc.), or any earthly objects¹⁹ (money, pleasure, business and the like).

Why. We should love God above all things 1. Because He is most worthy of our love.²⁰ 2. Because He first loved us,²¹ and gave His Son to die for us. 3. Because our highest happiness is found in loving Him.

How we should show our Love. We should show that we love God above all things 1. By leading a godly life.²² 2. By loving the things of God, especially the Church and the Gospel.²³ 3. By loving our fellow-men for His sake.²⁴

3. We should Trust in God above All Things. We should rely with all our heart upon His love and care,²⁵ placing our chief dependence on Him, and not on our own wisdom, skill, or strength, or upon men, money etc.

Why. We should trust in God with all our heart because 1. He loves us.²⁶ 2. He knows all our wants.²⁷ 3. He knows what is best for us. 4. He is able to do all things. 5. He has promised to care for us.²⁸

How we should show our Trust. If we trust in God above all things we will show that trust, 1. By freedom from unbelieving care and worry.²⁹ 2. By reliance upon God's help and protection at all times.³⁰ 3. By committing the entire ordering of our lives to Him.³¹

We have all broken this first commandment: for we have not always and everywhere feared, loved and trusted in God above all things.

CHAPTER VI.

THE SECOND COMMANDMENT.

GOD'S NAME.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to curse, swear, conjure, lie or deceive by His name, but call upon Him in every time of need, and worship Him with prayer, praise and thanksgiving.

THE NAME OF GOD.¹ A name is that by which we know a person. God's name means all by which He is known to us; hence not only the words God, Lord, Jehovah, Jesus Christ, the Almighty, the Eternal, the Omniscient One, etc., but the Word of God and the Sacraments, and all holy things.

¹Ps. 111:9.
Mal. 2:2.
Rev. 15:4.

This Commandment forbids the wrong use, and commands the right use of God's holy name.

I. WHAT IS FORBIDDEN.

TAKING GOD'S NAME IN VAIN:

1. Thoughtlessly. God's name is taken in vain thoughtlessly by using it as an exclamation in our conversation, by reading or hearing God's Word without devotion, jesting about sacred things, quoting Scripture in fun, and the like. Thoughtlessness is no excuse. We must give an account to God for every idle word;² how much more for every vain use of His name.

²Matt. 12:36.†

2. Intentionally. This is done by those who Curse;³ that is, by those who call on God to do evil to themselves or to others. Disguised forms of cursing are sinful also.

Swear. We are forbidden to confirm what we say by the use of God's name, either *Needlessly*⁴ in our ordinary conversation, or *Falsely*⁵ before a magistrate.

There is a Legal Oath:⁶ 1. Of Witness. 2. Of Innocence. 3. Of Allegiance. 4. Of Office. The oath taken by our Lord before the high-priest shows that the oath before a magistrate is not forbidden.⁷ When taking a legal oath, we must be careful to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. False swearing or perjury is a great sin. It is punished by the State, and will be punished by God.⁸

Swearing by anything besides God's name is forbidden also.⁹

Conjure.¹⁰ This commandment forbids all magic arts, witchcraft, sorcery, pow-wow, fortune-telling, and all attempts by signs or formulas to discover what God has kept hidden or to attain what He has withheld. If results are obtained by such means, e. g.; by pow-wow, that is no justification for their use.¹¹ If we desire to obtain help through the use of God's name, we must pray and not conjure.

Lie. The eighth commandment forbids lying in general; this commandment forbids lying by God's name. It is broken by those who teach falsehood and error and yet declare that they are teaching God's Word.¹²

Deceive by His Name. This is done by those who assume Christ's name by calling themselves Christians, and yet are hypocrites, and use religion as a cloak.¹³

Sins against this Second Commandment are common, but not small sins. God will not hold him guiltless who commits them.

In Every Time of Need. We should call upon God in every time of trouble, danger or distress.¹⁵ But ^{15Ps. 50:15.†} if we call upon God only in times of special need, and do not call upon His name at other times also, we are not keeping this commandment.

THE THIRD COMMANDMENT.

GOD'S DAY.

Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to despise His Word and the preaching of the Gospel, but deem it holy and willingly hear and learn it.

THE LORD'S DAY. Under the Old Testament the Israelites, by God's command, observed the seventh day of the week, Saturday, as the Sabbath or day of rest, because God rested from the work of Creation on the seventh day.¹ For the Christians all days are holy.² But from the earliest times the Christian ¹Gen. 2:2,3.

²Rom. 14:5,6.

Col. 2:16.

Acts 2:46.

Church set apart Sunday as a special day of worship,³ because it is the day on which Christ rose from the dead. The Sabbath of the Old Testament commemorated the completion of Creation; the Lord's Day of the New Testament commemorates the completion of Redemption.

A HOLY DAY. The Lord's Day is to be kept holy by devoting it to holy things. It is to be a day of rest in order that it may be a day of worship. Any unnecessary work or any recreation which hinders us from hearing and profiting by God's Word is sinful.

I. WHAT IS FORBIDDEN.

We are not

To despise God's Word and the Preaching of the Gospel,⁴ by

⁴Luke 10:16.†

1. Making light of God's Word, or regarding and treating it as the word of man.

2. Neglecting to go to church, and pleading poor excuses for absence.⁵

⁵Heb. 10:25.†

3. Inattention and lack of devotion in church.⁶

⁶Eccl. 5:1.†

4. Filling the mind with worldly things on Sunday (business, pleasure, Sunday-newspapers, etc.), so that God's Word cannot be rightly received into the heart.⁷

⁷Luke 8:5,12.

5. Making Sunday a holiday, lounging-day, or pleasure-day.

6. Making it a working-day, and thus preventing attendance at church.

II. WHAT IS COMMANDED.

We are

To deem God's Word holy, and willingly hear and learn it, by

⁸I Thess. 2:13.†

1. Regarding it as God's voice speaking to us.⁸

⁹Ps. 122:1,2.†

2. Going to church gladly and regularly.⁹

¹⁰Luke 11:28.†

3. Listening attentively and devoutly to God's Word, and joining heartily in the service.¹⁰

Jas. 1:21,22.†

Rom. 10:17.

4. Attending Sunday-school and learning our lessons.

5. Teaching in Sunday-school when we have become old enough and our services are needed.

6. Reading the Bible and good books.

7. Doing whatever promotes the worship and honoring of God by ourselves or by others.¹¹

¹¹Jas. 1:27.†

A DAY OF REST. Sunday is meant for the good of the soul. But a rest on one day out of seven is necessary also for the welfare of the body. Sunday is a blessed privilege for body, mind, and soul. Sometimes, however, both the rest for body and mind and the attendance at church must be sacrificed in order to perform works of mercy as a duty to our fellow-men.

THE CHURCH-YEAR. The Church has also arranged a Church-year for the commemoration of the principal events in the Savior's life. The order of the Church-year is as follows: Four Sundays in Advent, Christmas, New Year, Epiphany (January 6), from two to six Sundays after Epiphany (according as Easter comes early or late); three Sundays called Septuagesima, Sexagesima, Quinquagesima; Ash Wednesday (the first day in Lent), six Sundays in Lent (the sixth being Palm Sunday), Holy Week (including Good Friday), Easter, five Sundays after Easter, Ascension Day, Sunday after Ascension, Pentecost or Whitsunday, Trinity Sunday; and from twenty-three to twenty-seven Sundays after Trinity. The Lutheran Church observes also the festival of the Reformation on the 31st day of October. Each Sunday and Festival Day has its own Gospel and Epistle lesson, as well as its own Introit and Collect.

QUESTIONS.—1. What is the difference between Sabbath and Sunday? 2. Why is Sunday to be a day of rest? 3. What does this commandment forbid? 4. In what way is this commandment broken? 5. What does this commandment command? 6. How is this commandment to be kept? 7. Why is Sunday a blessed privilege? 8. When must our Sunday's rest and our attendance at church be sacrificed? 9. What is the object of the Church-year? 10. Give the order of the Church-year.

SCRIPTURE VERSES.—Luke 10: 16. He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.

THE SECOND TABLE OF THE LAW.

OUR DUTY TO OUR FELLOW-MEN.

*“Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.”*¹

¹Matt. 22:39.

OUR NEIGHBOR means every one. We are to love all men as we love ourselves;² not only our relatives, friends, and acquaintances, but strangers, enemies, and people of all nations and climes. We must be ready to do good to all who are in need of our help and kindness. Compare the Parable of the Good Samaritan.³

CHAPTER VIII.

THE FOURTH COMMANDMENT.

OUR PARENTS AND SUPERIORS.

Honor thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to despise nor displease our parents and superiors, but honor, serve, obey, love and esteem them.

PARENTS are God's representatives in the family for the maintenance of law and order in it. They are charged by God with the care and training of their children, and are clothed by Him with authority over them. Their will is law for their children, so long as it does not conflict with the law of God.

SUPERIORS are those who are placed over us in a position of authority in the Family, Church, School, or State; e. g., guardians, step-parents, grand-parents, pastors, teachers, rulers, etc. They also are God's representatives to maintain order, and are to be honored and obeyed as such. In every case of a conflict of authority, we must "obey God rather than men."¹

¹Acts 5:29.

This commandment forbids us to despise or displease our parents and superiors, and commands us to honor, serve, obey, love, and esteem them.

OUR DUTY TO OUR PARENTS, GRANDPARENTS, GUARDIANS, ETC.

I. WHAT IS FORBIDDEN.

We must not

²Prov. 30:17.† Despise them, mock at them,² make light of them, think ourselves wiser or above their authority, nor

³Deut. 27:16.† speak disrespectfully of them or to them.³

We must not

Displease them by lack of affection, grumbling, disobedience, stubbornness, rebelliousness, or wicked-

⁴Exod. 21:15.† ness.⁴

II. WHAT IS COMMANDED.

We should

Honor them as those who are placed over us by God's appointment, look up to them, and always treat them with proper respect⁵ and consideration.

⁵Lev. 19:3.

Eph. 6:2,3.†

Serve them, be helpful to them, lighten their burdens, and anticipate their wishes.⁶

⁶I Tim. 5:4.

Obey them by cheerfully and promptly doing their will, even when it is not to our liking.⁷

⁷Eph. 6:1.
Col. 3:20.†
Prov. 1:8.

Love them, and show our love by a constant desire and effort to please them. We should call to mind what they have done and still do for us, that our love for them may grow deep and tender.⁸

John 19:26,

Esteem them. We should regard and appreciate them as a precious gift of God. Children who have lost father or mother have met with a great loss.

IN LATER YEARS. We should honor, love and obey our parents while we are young; and we should still love and honor them when we are older. We must not despise or be ashamed of them if we happen to rise to a higher position in life than they. When they have grown old and feeble, we should care tenderly for them; and after they are dead, we should treasure their memory.

OUR DUTY TO OUR SUPERIORS.⁶

⁶Rom. 13:7.†

THE PASTOR is to be honored for the sake of the office which he holds. He is the ambassador of Christ;¹⁰ and when he preaches the Gospel, or speaks words of admonition and counsel in private, the Saviour speaks through him. Those who hear him hear Christ; those who despise him despise Christ.¹¹ We should heed his admonitions,¹² and, as far as we are able, help and encourage him in his work.

¹⁰II Cor. 5:20.

¹¹Luke 10:16.

¹²Heb. 13:17.†
I Thess. 5:12,
13.

OUR TEACHERS in Sunday-school and in other schools are placed over us in a position of authority, and must therefore be respected and honored.

RULERS AND THE GOVERNMENT. The State is God's servant to regulate temporal affairs and to maintain law and order in the land. Rulers and officials of the government must be respected and honored.¹² Christians must be good citizens. They must always obey the law, so long as it does not conflict with the law of God.¹³ They should be patriotic, pray for their country, be ready to defend it, pay their taxes, and be concerned that it shall be a Christian land. Every voter shares in the responsibility of securing righteous government, and should cast his vote conscientiously.

OLD PERSONS in general are to be treated with "Lev. 19:32.† respect and honor."¹⁴

A special blessing is promised to those who keep this commandment.

CHAPTER IX.

THE FIFTH COMMANDMENT.

HUMAN LIFE.

Thou shalt not kill.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to do our neighbor any bodily harm or injury, but rather assist and comfort him in danger and want.

HUMAN LIFE is sacred. It is man's most precious earthly possession; for without it he cannot enjoy any other. This commandment is meant to guard it. We dare not shorten another person's life, nor our own. God gives life, and He alone has the right to take it away.

This commandment forbids us to kill or injure other persons or ourselves. It commands us to assist and comfort our neighbor in danger and want.

I. WHAT IS FORBIDDEN.

We must not

1. KILL OR INJURE OTHER PERSONS.

Murder. To destroy any human life, even if it be very young or yet unborn, is a great crime. He who commits murder is to be punished with death.¹ Among the motives which prompt to murder are anger, hatred,² envy,³ jealousy, revenge,⁴ frivolity, avarice, robbery, and a desire to hide past sin.⁵ We must be on our guard against all that would ever tempt us to this great crime.

Duels. It is foolish as well as sinful to pretend to establish the right or wrong of a question by a duel.

Unjust Wars are wholesale murder. Rulers must do all that they honorably can to prevent war. Yet as a last resort to maintain the right, war is justifiable.

Hatred is murder in the heart. "He that hateth his brother is a murderer."⁶

Tempting Others to useless risks in which they may perish or be injured, or to drunkenness, dissipation, etc. which will shorten their life, is a transgression of this commandment.

Causing Accidents by neglect, carelessness or bad workmanship, or

*Shortening Other People's Lives*⁷ by maltreatment, overwork, worryment, etc. makes men guilty of sin against this commandment.

Neglect to Warn others of impending danger or neglect to assist them in need may result in their injury or death.

The law recognizes our right to defend our life when it is unjustly assailed. But killing others in self-defense must be our last resort. Many persons act hastily. The official who inflicts the death penalty on condemned criminals is not guilty of wrong, but is doing his duty as an officer of the State.⁸

⁸Rom. 13:4.

It is a sin to kill our neighbor's soul by tempting him to sin, or enticing him to wrong-doing by our evil example.

Suicide is often prompted by despair, remorse,⁹ cowardice, recklessness, or insanity. But it is sinful as well as foolish and cowardly. He who commits it robs himself of the opportunity to repent, and leaves others to bear the burdens from which he shrank. If we are tempted to despair, we should not commit suicide, but seek comfort and strength in God's Word.

If we have fallen into disgrace by sin, we should repent and lead a better life.

Duels. We not only have no right to endanger another's life by a duel, but we have no right to endanger our own. The duel, which was once a common practice, has justly fallen under the condemnation of public opinion.

A Life of Sin. Impurity, drunkenness, gluttony, or dissipation will shorten our life, and make us die before our allotted time.

Disregard of the Laws of Health, overwork, needless exposure, carelessness, violent anger, needless worry, are all forbidden by this commandment.

The voluntary sacrifice of our life for truth and right (martyrdom), or in defense of our country, or in an effort to rescue and save others, is not only justifiable but noble.¹⁰

¹⁰I John 3:16.

II. WHAT IS COMMANDED.

Assist and Comfort Our Neighbor.¹¹

1. In Danger. We should

Warn him of danger.

Defend and rescue him.

Ward off danger from him.

Save him from worry and anxiety whenever we can.

2. In Want. We should Aid the poor and destitute.

Minister to the sick.

Comfort the afflicted and distressed.

Give to organized charities: orphanages, asylums, hospitals, rescue-work, etc.

Give to missions in order to save souls.

CHAPTER X.

THE SIXTH COMMANDMENT.

PURITY. MARRIAGE.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as to be chaste and pure in our words and deeds, each one also loving and honoring his wife or her husband.

This commandment is meant to preserve our personal purity, and to guard the holy estate of marriage. It forbids adultery and all impurity. It commands chastity and purity in thought, word, and deed.

I. PURITY.

We should be Chaste and Pure

In Heart. We should keep our heart free from impure thoughts and desires.¹ God judges us by the state of our heart.² Unchaste thoughts must not be delighted in nor harbored, but subdued and stamped out. They poison the soul. They are themselves a transgression of this commandment,³ and they lead to further transgressions of it by word and deed.

In Words. We must avoid immodest conversation, unchaste words, vile stories, and shameless jests.⁴ Such things are not smart, as many think, but vile and despicable. We should never take part in nor listen to a conversation which we would be ashamed to have overheard by persons whom we respect.

In Deeds. We should carefully avoid every act which would bring the blush of shame to our cheeks if it were known to our parents or others whose opinion we cherish. Our bodies are to be God's temple,⁵ and they dare not be given over to sin and impurity.⁶ We should remember that God sees even in secret, and knows all our actions.⁷

 Gal. 5:19–21.† It is often followed by the most dreadful consequences : a ruined body, an enfeebled mind, a poisoned soul, a tortured conscience, public shame, dreadful disease and an untimely death.
- ⁹Matt. 26: To Keep ourselves Pure we should watch and pray,⁹ 41.† avoid idleness, evil company, bad books and papers, indecent songs and pictures, immoral plays, intemperance in eating and drinking, and all that would incite to impurity. We should keep our minds occupied with good thoughts and desires, so that we have no room for evil ones.¹⁰
- ¹⁰Rom. 13:14.

II. MARRIAGE.

Marriage is the union of one man and one woman for life in the bonds of love and faithfulness.

- A Holy Estate.* Marriage was instituted by God in Eden,¹¹ and was sanctioned by Christ, who performed His first miracle at a wedding.¹² It is a holy estate. Celibacy is not a holier estate than marriage, as the Roman Catholic Church maintains.¹³
- ¹¹Gen. 2:18.
¹²John 2:1–11.
¹³I Tim. 4:1–3.

- Indissoluble.* The marriage tie is binding until one of the married persons dies.¹⁴ Except by death, the marriage relation cannot be broken or dissolved without sin against this sixth commandment.¹⁵ If one party to the marriage is guilty of adultery, the innocent party may obtain a divorce. No other divorces are allowed by Christ.
- ¹⁴Matt. 19:6.†
¹⁵Matt. 5:32.†
 Matt. 19:9.

An Important Step. Marriage is a most important step in life. It must not be entered into hastily or thoughtlessly. If a mistake is made in the choice of a partner for life, the mistake can never be remedied. Those who contemplate such a step should pray for God's guidance. Marriage should not be entered upon for money, social advantages, and the like, but for love. Parents should be consulted. While marriage by a civil magistrate is valid, Christians should seek God's blessing upon their union and be married by His ordained servant. The laws of the State must be carefully obeyed. Marriage between near relatives is forbidden by God's Word.¹⁶ Those who are married should, if possible, be of the same faith. Marriages between Protestants and Roman Catholics are seldom happy.

Duty of Husband¹⁷ and Wife.¹⁸ Each should love and honor his wife or her husband. The man is the head of the family, but he must not be a tyrant. The wife is not his slave, but his dearest companion. They are no longer two but one, with a common love, a common life, a common property, common children, common hopes and aspirations, and a common Saviour.¹⁹ They should be patient with one another's faults, just to one another's virtues, and should unselfishly seek one another's happiness. They should live together in mutual love and faithfulness till separated by death. Only when husband and wife continue to love and honor one another can they be happy. The breaking of the marriage covenant is followed by shame and misery.

What is to be said about purity in deeds? 6. Mention some of the consequences which often follow upon impurity. 7. How may we keep ourselves pure? 8. What is marriage? 9. Why is marriage a holy estate? 10. How long is the marriage tie binding? 11. When only and by whom dare a divorce be obtained? 12. Why must marriage not be entered upon hastily or thoughtlessly? 13. CHAPTER XI.

THE SEVENTH COMMANDMENT.

PROPERTY. HONESTY.

Thou shalt not steal.

What is meant by this commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to rob our neighbor of his money or property, nor bring it into our possession by unfair dealing or fraudulent means, but rather assist him to improve and protect it.

THE OBJECT of this commandment is to protect every man in the possession of that which is lawfully his own. Without such protection the individual could not support his life, and society could not exist. The industrious and thrifty would be at the mercy of the lazy and wicked. This commandment forbids us to use dishonest means of acquiring property.

It commands us to assist our neighbor to improve and protect his own.

PROPERTY consists of whatever each person lawfully acquires of the earth's lands, forests, water, mines, houses, goods or money. It may be rightfully acquired by original claim, inheritance, gift, or labor of body or mind. Honest labor united with economy is the best way to acquire it.

UNEQUAL DIVISION. God, who is the absolute owner of all things,¹ divides to each as He will.² He "maketh poor and maketh rich."³ Much poverty, however, is due to men's own laziness, idleness,⁴ carelessness or extravagance; and much wealth has been wrongfully gained contrary to God's will as expressed in this commandment. Communism, or the equal division of property among all men, is not practicable. It failed in the apostolic Church.⁵ If all things were equally divided, some would soon clamor for another division.

POVERTY AND RICHES. The happiest person is he who is neither rich nor poor, but has sufficient for his needs.⁶ Poverty may tempt a man to dishonesty; and riches may lead him to avarice, hardness of heart, worldliness and extravagance.⁷ Riches make it hard for a man to enter into the kingdom of God.⁸ We should respect men for what they are, and not for what they have. We should not flatter the rich nor despise the poor.⁹

USE OF PROPERTY. God entrusts earthly property to us as His stewards.¹⁰ Whether we are rich or poor, we should so use our property as to be able to give an account to God. For ourselves and those dependent on us¹¹ we should use it for the supply of our bodily needs (food, clothing, shelter, a reasonable amount of pleasure) and of our spiritual needs¹² (the Church and the Gospel). For our fellow-men we should, when necessary, use it according to our ability for their bodily needs (the poor) and their spiritual needs (Home and Foreign Missions).¹³

3. Dishonesty in the Heart. Dishonesty has its source in the covetousness and greed of the human heart.¹⁵ Men first covet, and then steal or defraud. We must beware of covetousness.¹⁶ The love of money is a root of all evil.¹⁷ We must be honest even in small matters. He who is dishonest in little will be dishonest in much.¹⁸ We must avoid all that would tempt us to dishonesty; namely, evil companions, idleness, speculation, extravagance, etc.

CHAPTER XII.

TRUTHFULNESS.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

What is meant by this commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not deceitfully to belie, betray, slander, nor raise injurious reports against our neighbor, but apologize for him, speak well of him, and put the most charitable construction on all his actions.

THE OBJECT of this commandment is to secure truthfulness,¹ and to guard our good name.² Without truthfulness we could not believe anything we heard, and the utmost confusion would prevail in the affairs of men. A good name is one of our most precious earthly possessions.

This commandment forbids all lying. It commands perfect truthfulness and a charitable judgment of others.

I. WHAT IS FORBIDDEN.

ALL LYING is forbidden.³ False witness against other persons is the worst form of lying. All lesser forms of lying are forbidden along with the greater.

1. False Witness against our Neighbor. We must not tell a falsehood about another person either in court or in every-day life. We must not Belie him, that is, tell an untruth about him.

Betray.⁴ We must not abuse our neighbor's confidence by revealing his innocent secrets, and thus annoying or harming him. One who pretends to be another's friend, and yet betrays him, is acting a lie. We dare not, however, hide crime; and we must tell what we know about others if the court, or parents, or persons who have a right to know, inquire of us.

²Prov. 22:1.†

³Ps. 34:13.†

Prov. 24:28.

Slander nor Raise Injurious Reports.⁵ We must not invent nor repeat false reports concerning our neighbor. We must not say behind his back what we fear to say to his face. We must not magnify his faults,⁶ nor impute evil motives to him, nor make his words and conduct look as bad as possible. The slanderer is worse than a thief and causes incalculable suffering and misery.⁷ We should remember that words once spoken live on for good or evil, and cannot be unsaid; and that we must give an account to God for every word we speak.⁸

2. Lying of Any Kind. A lie is a conscious falsehood uttered with the purpose of deceiving. It may be acted as well as spoken.⁹ We must not deceive nor try to deceive others by telling an untruth, by hiding the truth or a part of it, by hypocrisy, flattery, boasting, broken promises, conventional lies, "white lies," "lies of necessity," guesses given as facts, etc.

II. WHAT IS COMMANDED.

1. Truthfulness. Truth is of God;¹⁰ lying is of the devil.¹¹ As children of God we must be truthful.¹² A liar is an abomination in God's sight.¹³ If necessary, we should be ready to suffer and die for the truth.

2. A Charitable Judgment of Others. We should Apologize for our Neighbor, and defend him when his character is unjustly assailed.¹⁴ We must be careful, however, not to excuse or make light of sin.¹⁵ We should Speak well of him whenever we can do so truthfully. We should speak of his virtues rather than of his faults.¹⁶ If we cannot speak well of him, then, unless it is absolutely necessary, we had better not speak of him at all. We should Put the most Charitable Construction on all his Actions.¹⁷ We should, as far as possible, make the best and not the worst of what our neighbor says and does. We should think and speak of him only in kindness.

CHAPTER XIII.

THE NINTH AND TENTH COMMANDMENTS.

A RIGHT HEART.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to desire by craftiness to gain possession of our neighbor's inheritance or home, or to obtain it under the pretext of a legal right; but be ready to assist and serve him in the preservation of his own.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

What is meant by this Commandment?

We should so fear and love God as not to alienate our neighbor's wife from him, entice away his servants, nor let loose his cattle, but use our endeavors that they may remain and discharge their duty to him.

Both these commandments forbid coveting; hence, we may consider them together. They deal with the root and source of all sin; namely, the evil lusts and desires of the heart.¹

THE OBJECT of these two commandments is to emphasize the necessity of a right state of heart.² All the commandments must, indeed, be kept in thought as well as in word and deed. But by adding these two special commandments against coveting, God desires to impress upon us most strongly that wrong thoughts and desires make us guilty before Him. We are not keeping God's commandments unless we are free from the desire to transgress them. As a man "thinketh in his heart, so is he."³

THE HEART BY NATURE SINFUL. We are born with a sinful nature and a natural inclination to evil (Original sin), which we have inherited from our ancestors as a result of the fall into sin.⁴ This natural inclination to evil manifests itself in wrong thoughts and desires which arise in the heart.⁵ These wrong desires or lusts are in themselves sinful: and if they are not subdued, they lead to sins of words

These commandments forbid us to covet anything that is our neighbor's. They command us to assist and serve him in retaining his own.

I. WHAT IS FORBIDDEN.

COVETING. To covet means to desire what we have no right to have. To wish to obtain something in a lawful way is not coveting. But we must not have

[†]Gal. 5:24.†

1. *An Unlawful Desire*⁷ for our neighbor's possessions, whether it be his property, wife, servants, cattle, or anything that is his. We must not envy him on account of them, nor begrudge them to him, nor wish that we had them in his stead. We must not make

2. Any Attempt to Gratify such Unlawful Desires and to gain possession of our neighbor's inheritance or home

By Craftiness, shrewdness, cunning, deceit and the like.⁸ Nor dare we seek to obtain it

[†]Matt. 23:14.†

Under the Pretext of a Legal Right; that is, by ways which human laws allow and appear to sanction, but which are not right before God.⁹ Nor dare we attempt to Alienate (estrangle), entice or drive away from him his wife, servants, or cattle, by persuasion, flattery, falsehood, promises, threats, or force.

II. WHAT IS COMMANDED.

ASSISTANCE AND SERVICE. We should

[†]Phil. 2:4.†
Gal. 5:12.

1. Assist and Serve him in the Preservation of his Own.¹⁰ Instead of wishing to get his property away from him, we should most heartily wish that he may be able to keep it, and should help him to retain it. We should

2. Use our Endeavors that they who belong to him may remain and discharge their duty to him. We should help him to retain their affection and faithfulness. We should heartily wish them to remain, and persuade them to do so.

QUESTIONS.—1. Why may these two commandments be considered together? 2. With what do they deal? 3. What is the object of these two commandments? 4. When only are we keeping God's commandments? 5. What is to be said about the natural state of the heart. 6. What do these commandments forbid? 7. What do they command? 8. Define coveting. 9. If we would avoid breaking this commandment, what must we not do? 10. How should we be of assistance and service to our neighbor?

CHAPTER XIV.

THE CONCLUSION OF THE COMMANDMENTS.

PUNISHMENT OR BLESSING.

What does God declare concerning these Commandments?

He says: "I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me, and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments."

What is meant by this Declaration?

God threatens to punish all those who transgress these commandments; we should therefore dread His displeasure and not act contrarily to these commandments. But He promises grace and every blessing to all who keep them; we should therefore love and trust in him, and cheerfully do what he has commanded us.

A JEALOUS GOD. God claims our highest love, and is grieved and offended if we turn our affections away from Him and disobey His law. He will punish or bless men according as they hate or love Him:¹ “to the third and fourth generation of them that hate him,” and “unto thousands of them that love Him and keep His commandments.”

1. Whom? All those who transgress these commandments² by commission (doing what is forbidden) or omission (not doing what is commanded), whether it be transgression by deed or word or thought. Every transgression, great or small, is sin, and makes men guilty and punishable.³

2. Why? Because justice demands it.⁴ God cannot be unjust. He cannot overlook or excuse sin.⁵ Earthly governments must and do punish offenders, or they would be unjust to those persons who obey the law. A law without a penalty would amount to nothing. God, who governs the universe, is and must be just.⁶

3. How?

In this World God punishes sin by Pangs of Conscience;⁷ Pains and Sufferings which are the results of wrong-doing,⁸ e. g., the results of drunkenness and licentiousness; Legal Penalties which the State, as God's servant to punish crime, inflicts by fines, imprisonment and hanging;⁹ Special Judgments upon individuals¹⁰ in the form of sickness, accidents and reverses, though we must remember that afflictions are not always a judgment, but are often sent upon the godly as a chastening ;¹¹ General Judgments upon wicked communities, such as that which God sent upon Sodom and Gomorrah.¹²

PART II.

THE CREED.

CHAPTER XV.

CREEDS OR CONFESSIONS.

THE CREED, from the Latin Credo, I believe, means that which we as Christians believe. The Creed given in our Catechism is the Apostles' Creed. It is so called, not because it was written by the apostles, but because it contains, in a brief summary, the doctrines which the apostles taught. It grew out of the words of the baptismal formula: "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost."¹ It has come down to us from the early centuries of the Church's history, and is her confession of faith. It should be our confession also; we should say from the heart, "I believe in God, etc." There are ¹Matt. 28:19.

TWO KINDS OF CREEDS or Confessions of Faith:—

I. Oecumenical or Universal Creeds, which are accepted by the whole Christian Church throughout the world. They are

1. The Apostles' Creed.

2. The Nicene Creed.

3. The Athanasian Creed.

II. Particular Creeds or Confessions, which are accepted by the various Churches and Denominations as their distinctive confessions.

Our Lutheran Confessions are:—

1. The Augsburg Confession.

2. The Apology (Defense) of the Augsburg Confession.

3. The Schmalcald Articles.

4. The Small Catechism.

5. The Large Catechism.

6. The Formula of Concord.

These nine confessions together form the Book of Concord.

THE APOSTLES' CREED CONTAINS, in Three Articles, a statement of what the Triune God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, has done and still does for us.

Article I. treats of God the Father and His work of Creation.

Article II. treats of God the Son and His work of Redemption.

Article III. treats of God the Holy Ghost and His work of Sanctification.

²Deut. 6:4.

THE TRINITY. There is only one God,² but there are three Persons, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Hence, we say that God is the Holy Trinity, or the Three in One. We cannot understand or explain how God can be three Persons and yet only one God. But we must not expect with our finite mind to comprehend the infinite God. We must accept the truth concerning God as He himself has revealed it to us in His Word. He plainly tells us that He is One; for He says, “I am the Lord thy God; thou shalt ³Exod. 20:2, 3. have no other gods before Me.”³ Yet He also plainly tells us that there are three Persons. They are expressly mentioned in Christ's command to His disciples, “Go ye, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost."⁴ And they were all revealed at the baptism of Jesus, when the Father spoke from heaven and said, "This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased," and the Holy Ghost descended on Jesus in the form of a dove.⁵ Each Person of the Holy Trinity has a share in the work of our salvation. The Father sent His Son to save us;⁶ the Son became man and died for us;⁷ and the Holy Spirit applies redemption to our souls⁸ through the Word of God and the Sacraments.

QUESTIONS.—1. Define the word Creed. 2. Why is the Apostles' Creed so called? 3. How did it originate? 4. What two kinds of creeds are there? 5. Name the oecumenical creeds. 6. Name the particular creeds or confessions of the Lutheran Church? 7. What does the Apostles' Creed contain? 8. Of what do the three articles of the Apostles' Creed treat? 9. What is meant by the Holy Trinity? 10. How do we know that God is only one God? 11. How do we know there are three Persons? 12. How do the three Persons of the Trinity share in the work of our salvation?

THE FIRST ARTICLE.

OF GOD THE FATHER, OR CREATION.

CHAPTER XVI.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth.

What is meant by this Article?

I believe that God has created me and all that exists; that He has given and still preserves to me my body and soul, with all my limbs and senses, my reason and all the faculties of my mind, together with my raiment, food, home and family, and all my property: that He daily provides me abundantly with all the necessaries of life, protects me from all danger, and preserves me and guards me against all evil; all which He does out of pure, paternal and divine goodness and mercy, without any merit or worthiness in me; for all which I am in duty bound to thank, praise, serve and obey Him. This is most certainly true.

I Believe in, that is, I trust in, I rely upon.

God the Father. He is the Father of my Lord

⁴Ps. 102:25.

Maker of Heaven and Earth.³ He has made all things,—the universe and all that it contains. The world did not come into being of itself or by chance, nor did it exist from eternity. God made it out of nothing. In the beginning He created the heaven and the earth.⁴ They were at first a formless mass;⁵ but in six days God fashioned the formless mass into the world as it now exists. On these six days He created, 1. Light. 2. The Firmament. 3. Land and Sea. 4. Sun, moon and stars. 5. Fishes and birds. 6. Beasts and man.⁶

I. WHAT GOD HAS DONE AND STILL DOES FOR ME.

I believe that God has

1. *Created Me*¹⁰ and all that exists;¹¹ that He has given to me

My Body,—with all my limbs and senses. Though my body, like that of the beasts, is made of the dust of the ground,¹² it is vastly superior to their bodies, and is a marvelous piece of divine workman-

God made the human soul to be a likeness of Himself;¹⁵ that is, He gave to man in a limited measure those powers and faculties which He Himself possesses in unlimited and infinite measure. And while the human mind has become dimmed by the fall, its powers and faculties are still most wonderful. ¹⁴Gen. 2:7.†

II. WHY GOD DOES ALL THIS FOR ME.

He does it purely

1. Out of Paternal and Divine Goodness and Mercy.²³ It is ²³Ps. 103:13.†

Paternal or fatherly²³ goodness and mercy, because He is my Father through Jesus Christ, and loves me as His child. It is

Divine goodness and mercy, because God is love,²⁴ and only His unspeakable love could move Him to bestow His great benefits upon sinful men, even upon the wicked and unthankful.²⁵ ²⁴I John 4:16.†

1. To Thank and Praise Him. I must not receive God's benefits as a matter of course, but must recognize them as gifts of His grace, and daily thank and praise Him in my heart and with my lips.³⁰

³⁰Ps. 103:1.†

2. To Serve and Obey Him. I must show my gratitude in my life by obeying God's commandments and giving myself with all my heart to His service.³¹

³¹Rom. 12:1.†

This is most certainly true; namely, 1. That all the blessings I enjoy come from God. 2. That they are the gifts of His grace and that I am unworthy of them. 3. That I owe to God the fullest gratitude of heart and life.

THE SECOND ARTICLE.

OF GOD THE SON, OR REDEMPTION.

CHAPTER XVII.

And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

What is meant by this Article?

I believe that Jesus Christ, true God, begotten of the Father from eternity, and also true man, born of the Virgin Mary, is my Lord; who has redeemed me, a lost and condemned creature, secured and delivered me from all sins, from death and from the power of the devil, not with silver and gold, but with His holy and precious blood, and with His innocent sufferings and death, in order that I might be His, live under Him in His kingdom, and serve Him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness, even as He is risen from the dead, and lives and reigns to all eternity. This is most certainly true.

The Second Article treats of Jesus Christ, THE SON OF GOD, and his work of REDEMPTION. Prompted by His infinite love, God pitied our lost race, and determined to save us by sending a Redeemer in the person of His only Son.¹ Throughout the centuries of Old Testament history He repeatedly gave the promise of redemption: in Eden,² to the patriarchs,³ to David,⁴ and through the prophets.⁵ In the fulness of time God sent His Son into the world.⁶

OUR LORD.

I. HIS NAMES.

I believe that

Jesus. This was our Lord's personal name, given to Him by the angel.⁷ It signified, "He shall save."⁷ ⁷Matt. 1:21.

Christ. This was His official name, corresponding with the Old Testament name "Messiah,"⁸ and signified "The Anointed One." God anointed Him with the Holy Spirit for the work of redemption,⁹ to a threefold office:— ⁸John 1:41.

1. As Prophet, to teach us God's will.¹⁰ ⁹Luke 4:18-21.

2. As Priest, to atone for our sins, and to intercede for us.¹¹ ¹⁰Acts 3:22.

3. As King,¹² to reign over us in the Kingdom of Power, of Grace, and of Glory. ¹¹Heb. 4:14.

¹²Matt. 21:5.
Rev. 17:14.

II. HIS PERSON AND NATURE.

He is True God, Begotten of the Father from Eternity. Christ is true God,¹³ just as the Father is God.¹⁴ He is the Son of God, not as a good or great man who has been received or adopted as God's son, but He is in His very nature the Son of God, *begotten by His Father*¹⁵ *from all eternity.*¹⁶ He is "God of God, Light of Light, Very God of Very God, Begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father."¹⁷ ¹³Rom. 9:5.†

John 8:58.†
Matt. 16:16.
¹⁵John 3:16.†
¹⁶John 1:1.
John 17:5.
¹⁷John 10:30.†
The Scriptures show this by ascribing to Him divine names, attributes, power, honor, and works. At His baptism and at His transfiguration the Father spoke from heaven, and said, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."¹⁸ His divine nature is proved by His teaching, His miracles, His holy life, and especially by His resurrection from the dead.

And also True Man, Born of the Virgin Mary.

Christ was in all respects a human being such as we are, except that He was without sin.¹⁹ He was "conceived by the Holy Ghost," and thus had God alone for His Father.²⁰ But He was "born of the Virgin Mary,"²¹ with a human body²² and soul.²³ He grew, increased in wisdom and stature,²⁴ and reached the age of manhood. He suffered our human wants,²⁵ such as hunger, thirst, weariness, and pain. He was moved by human emotions,²⁶ such as joy, sorrow, and indignation. He wept,²⁷ prayed,²⁸ suffered, and died.²⁹ He could not have done these things if He had not been true man.

Christ is therefore both God and man in one Person.³⁰ Consequently He is the God-Man. It was necessary that the Redeemer should be both God and man.³¹ If He had not been God, but only man, He could not have paid a sufficient ransom for our deliverance from sin, nor have acquired any merit to bestow upon us. Even a sinless man could have saved no one but himself. On the other hand, if Christ had not become man, but remained God only, He could not have put Himself in our place under the law, nor have suffered and died in our stead. But as the God-man, Christ was able to accomplish, and did perfectly accomplish, our redemption.³² Thus He became and

Is my Lord, who has Redeemed Me, and in whom I trust for salvation.³³

CHAPTER XVIII.

OUR LORD.

III. HIS LIFE.

The Saviour's life includes two states; namely, His Humiliation and His Exaltation.

HIS HUMILIATION.

Christ's state of humiliation comprises His life on earth, during which He laid aside the full use of His divine glory and was content to appear among men in the form of a servant. He humbled Himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross,¹ in order that He might redeem us. He gave men glimpses of His divine glory: in the au-

¹Phil. 2:8.†

²Matt. 7:28, 29. thorty with which He taught,² in the holy life which He led,³ and in the miracles which He performed.⁴
³John 8:46. But in general He appeared like other men.
⁴John 2:11.

This state of humiliation includes five stages:—

He was

1. Conceived by the Holy Ghost, Born of the Virgin Mary. Christ might have appeared among men in the full splendor of His divine glory and majesty. But, in order to redeem us, He was content to be born in poverty,⁵ to grow up in obscurity,⁶ and to appear to most men as if He were simply a man.

⁵Luke 2:7.

II Cor. 8:

Matt. 8:20.

⁶Matt. 2:23.

2. Suffered under Pontius Pilate. The whole life of Jesus on earth was a life of suffering endured for our sakes. He bore all the trials and hardships which have come upon our race as a result of its sinfulness. He also suffered constant persecution at the hands of his enemies.⁷ But His greatest sufferings came at the end of His life, in the agony of Gethsemane,⁸ in the mock-trial before the Jewish Council,⁹ and in His sufferings under Pontius Pilate, the Roman governor.¹⁰ He was mocked, spitefully entreated, spat upon, crowned with thorns, and scourged; and then He

3. Was Crucified.¹¹ Though innocent and holy, He was treated as though He were a malefactor, and was put to a cruel and shameful death. He was nailed to a cross, and left suspended there till He died. So great was His agony, that He cried out, “My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken me?”¹²

¹²Mark 15:34.

4. Dead. After unspeakable sufferings, Jesus died on the cross.¹³ He was really, and not seemingly, dead.¹⁴ He voluntarily gave up His life for ours.¹⁵ His death was vicarious. He suffered the penalty for our sins.¹⁶

5. Buried. His body was laid away in the grave, where our bodies shall decay. But since Christ was “the Holy One of God,” His body could not “see corruption.”¹⁷

HIS EXALTATION.

After the work of redemption was completed, Christ assumed the full use of the glory and majesty which had belonged to Him as the Son of God from eternity; His human nature was exalted to a full share in the glory of His divine nature.¹⁸ He had humbled Himself as a man; and He was exalted as a man. His divine nature, being unchangeable, can neither be humbled nor exalted.¹⁹

¹⁸Phil. 2:9-11.†

¹⁹Heb. 13:8.†

Christ's exaltation, like His humiliation, includes five stages:—

1. He Descended into Hell. Immediately before His resurrection He descended into the place of the departed spirits and proclaimed His victory.²⁰

²⁰1 Pet. 3:19.

2. The Third Day He Rose again from the Dead. Having paid in full the penalty for our sins, He rose again from the dead, triumphant, on the third day (Easter). He had power to lay down His life, and power to take it again.²¹ As His death had been a real death, so His resurrection was a real resurrection. He re-appeared to His disciples, not as a spirit, but with the same body that was crucified, the prints of the nails and of the spear being plain in His hands and side.²² But His body was a transformed and glorified body, with new properties and powers.²³

²¹John 10:19.

²²Luke 24:36-40.

²³John 20:19.

The Resurrection a Fact. The reality of the resurrection is established beyond all doubt. The strongest proof of its reality is found in the fact that the disciples themselves were so unwilling to believe it, but were obliged to do so by the evidence of their own senses. Even the doubting Thomas exclaimed, "My Lord, and my God."²⁴ During the forty days between His resurrection and His ascension the Lord gave His disciples so many proofs of His resurrection that all their doubts were removed.²⁵ The women on Easter morn found the grave empty and were told by an angel that He had risen.²⁶ He was seen by Mary in the Garden,²⁷ by Peter,²⁸ by the two disciples at

The Resurrection proves 1. That Jesus is the Son of God.³⁷ 2. That the sacrifice which He made for sin was sufficient and accepted.³⁸ 3. That we also shall rise from the dead.³⁹

He Ascended into Heaven from Mount Olivet forty days after His resurrection.⁴⁰ Having finished His work on earth, He returned to the heaven from which He had come. He has gone to prepare a place for us.⁴¹

4. And sitteth on the Right Hand of God the Father Almighty; that is, on the right hand of God's power. As the God-man He now wields all power in heaven and earth.⁴² He rules over all creatures in the realm of Power; over the believers in the realm of Grace (the Church on earth); and over angels and saints in the realm of Glory in heaven. He continues His office of High-priest, and intercedes for us with the Father.⁴³

5. From thence He shall come to judge the Quick and the Dead. At the end of the world Christ will come again visibly,⁴⁴ suddenly, and unexpectedly,⁴⁵ with power and great glory, to judge both the quick (living) and the dead.⁴⁶ He will separate the believing from the unbelieving; receive the believers unto Himself; and cast the impenitent and unbelieving into outer darkness and torment. His coming will fill the believers with joy,⁴⁷ and the unbelievers with dismay.⁴⁸ No one knows or can compute the exact time of His coming. We should

CHAPTER XIX.

CHRIST'S WORK OF REDEMPTION.

I. WHOM HE HAS REDEEMED.

He has redeemed

Me. Christ died for all ;¹ and consequently for me also.² Believing on Him, all the blessings of His redemption belong to me in time and in eternity. He is my Saviour, my Redeemer.

A Lost and Condemned Creature. I was lost,³ because my sin had separated me from God, and I could not have found my way back to Him, if Christ had not sought and found me. I was condemned,⁴ because I had broken God's commandments and deserved eternal punishment.

II. FROM WHAT HE HAS REDEEMED ME.

He has secured and delivered me

From all Sins ; namely, from the guilt of sin by paying its penalty for me on the cross ;⁵ and from the dominion of sin by giving me grace to fight against it and overcome it.⁶

From Death : not from bodily death, for even the Christian must die ; but from the fear of bodily death ;⁷ from spiritual death ;⁸ and from everlasting death.⁹

And from the Power of the Devil.¹⁰ On account of my sins, I was in Satan's power. But Christ has freed me. Since He has paid the penalty for my sins, Satan no longer has any claim upon me, and can no longer harm me.¹¹ He still tempts me to sin; but Christ gives me grace to resist. He still accuses me before God on account of my sins; but Christ shields me against Satan's accusations by the satisfaction which He, my Saviour, has made for all my sins.¹²

¹⁰I John 3:8.†¹¹John 10:27, 28.¹²I John 2:1.

III. HOW HE HAS REDEEMED ME.

Not with Silver and Gold;¹³ for no material wealth could purchase freedom from spiritual slavery and death. Nor has He redeemed me merely by becoming my great teacher and example; for this would not take away my guilt;

¹³I Pet. 1:18, 19.†

But with His Holy and Precious Blood.¹⁴ His blood was the price which Christ paid for my ransom. It was holy, because He was holy; and precious, because He was the Son of God. The shedding of Christ's blood for my sins was the only way in which I could be redeemed; for without the shedding of blood, there is no remission of sins.¹⁵

¹⁴I John 1:7.†¹⁵Heb. 9:22.

And with His Innocent Sufferings¹⁶ and Death.¹⁷ Christ suffered and died, not for any sins of His own, but for my sins. He was innocent and had no sin at all. But He voluntarily bore the punishment which I deserved, and thus satisfied all the demands of divine justice for me. Since He has borne the punishment for me, I, believing on Him, need no longer be punished.

¹⁶I Pet. 3:18.†¹⁷Rom. 5:7,8.†

Christ was my Substitute. By His holy life He perfectly fulfilled God's law in my place;¹⁸ and by His innocent sufferings and death He bore the punishment for my sins in my place.¹⁹ All that Christ has done is imputed to me by faith;²⁰ that is, it is all counted as if I myself had done it.²¹ His death, therefore, frees me from guilt and condemnation; and

His holy life makes me appear righteous in God's sight and fit to enter into heaven. My entire hope of salvation rests on Christ and what He has done

IV. WHY HE HAS REDEEMED ME.

In order that

I might be His. He desired me for His own,

²³II Cor. 5:15.† and therefore purchased me with His precious blood.²³

Hence I now belong to Him, and not to Satan or to myself. He wishes me to yield myself fully to Him in heart and life.²⁴ If I refuse to do so, I am withholding what belongs to Him.

Live under Him in His Kingdom; namely, in His kingdom of Grace on earth by a life of faith, and eternity, so I am to live and reign with Him for ever.³²

This is most certainly true: 1. That Jesus Christ, true God and true Man, is my Lord, who has redeemed me. 2. That He has paid the penalty for my sins with His holy and precious blood and His innocent sufferings and death. 3. That consequently I belong to Him, and should serve Him now and for ever.

QUESTIONS.—1. What four things does the explanation of the second article tell us about Christ's redemption? 2. Whom has Christ redeemed? 3. What was I before Christ redeemed me, and why? 4. From what has Christ redeemed me? 5. What is meant by redemption from sin? from death? and from the devil? 6. How has Christ redeemed me? 7. Why was the shedding of Christ's blood necessary? 8. Why did Christ suffer and die if He was innocent? 9. What is meant when we say that Christ was our substitute? 10. Why has Christ redeemed me? 11. To whom do I now belong, and what is my duty therefore? 12. What is meant by living under Christ in His kingdom? 13. In what spirit am I to serve Him? 14. What hope has Christ secured for me? 15. What three things are most certainly true according to this second article?

THE THIRD ARTICLE.

OF GOD THE HOLY GHOST, OR SANCTIFICATION.

CHAPTER XX.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the Holy Christian Church, the Communion of Saints; the Forgiveness of sins; the Resurrection of the Body; and the Life Everlasting. Amen.

What is meant by this Article?

I believe that I cannot by my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ my Lord, or come to Him; but the Holy Ghost has called me through the Gospel, enlightened me by His gifts, and sanctified and preserved me in the true faith; in like manner as He calls, gathers, enlightens, and sanctifies the whole Christian Church on earth, and preserves it in union with Jesus Christ in the true faith; in which Christian Church He daily forgives abundantly all my sins, and the sins of all believers, and will raise up me and all the dead at the last day, and will grant everlasting life to me and to all who believe in Christ. This is most certainly true.

THE THIRD ARTICLE treats of GOD THE HOLY GHOST and His work of SANCTIFICATION. It tells us how we become partakers of the Redemption which is described in the Second Article. Christ has accomplished our redemption, and the Holy Ghost applies that redemption to our souls. The work of the Holy Ghost in us is as necessary for our salvation¹ as the work of Christ for us. We must believe in Christ, if we would be saved;² and it is the Holy Ghost who causes us to believe.³

²Mark 16:16.

³I Cor. 12:3.

Article III. and its Explanation may be analyzed as follows:—

THE HOLY GHOST.

I. His Person and Nature: He is True God.

II. His Work: He Calls, Enlightens, Sanctifies, and Preserves me in the true Faith.

III. His Workmanship: The Holy Christian Church.

IV. The Fruits of His Work: 1. The Forgiveness of Sins. 2. The Resurrection of the Body, and the Life Everlasting.

THE HOLY GHOST.

I. HIS PERSON AND NATURE.

I Believe in the Holy Ghost. The Holy Ghost is true God. He is not simply a power or energy of God, but a Person.⁴ "He proceedeth from the Father and the Son, and with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified."⁵ The Scriptures ascribe to Him divine names, attributes, power, honor, and works. Christ commanded His disciples to baptize men in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost.⁶

⁴Acts 5:3,4.

⁵John 14:26.
John 15:26.

⁶Matt. 28:19.

The Holy Spirit instructed the prophets and teachers of Old Testament times,⁷ and was poured out upon the apostles on the day of Pentecost.⁸ He inspired the Holy Scriptures.⁹ He comes into our hearts through the Word of God and the Sacraments.

⁷II Pet. 1:21.

⁸Acts 2.

⁹I. Tim. 3:16.

II. HIS WORK.

The work of the Holy Ghost is Sanctification. This word is used here, at the head of the Third Article, in the wide sense, and includes the Holy Spirit's entire work upon our souls; namely, Calling, Enlightening, Sanctification in the narrower sense, and Preservation in the Faith.

1. ITS NECESSITY. If the Holy Spirit does not work in us, we cannot be saved. Hence, we say in the catechism,

I believe that I cannot by my own Reason or Strength believe in Jesus Christ my Lord, or come to Him. For as I am by nature, my reason is so darkened by sin,¹⁰ that I do not see my need of the Saviour; and I am so lacking in spiritual strength (being dead in trespasses and sins),¹¹ that I am unable to believe in Christ. Consequently it is necessary that the Holy Spirit should teach me to see in Christ my only Saviour, and give me strength to believe in Him.

¹⁰I Cor. 2:14.†

¹¹Eph. 2:1.

2. ITS NATURE. But the Holy Ghost has Called me through the Gospel.¹² He has caused His Word to be written¹³ and causes it to be continually proclaimed¹⁴ for the purpose of making God's grace known to me, and inviting me to share in it. He calls all men, and means His call earnestly. He does not merely seem to call some, but actually calls all who hear or read His Word.¹⁵ And along with the call, He gives us the strength which we need in order to believe.¹⁶ Those who obey the call are the Elect or Chosen¹⁷ ones, and obtain salvation. Those who refuse to obey the call are lost.¹⁸

Enlightened me by His Gifts. The Holy Ghost shows me my lost condition and God's saving mercy, and thus leads me to Repentance through the Law,¹⁹ and to Faith through the Gospel.²⁰

Repentance includes

1. An Acknowledgment and Confession of Sin.²¹
2. Sincere Sorrow for Sin.²² It must be sorrow for the sin itself, and not merely for the consequences of sin.

3. The Hating and Forsaking of Sin.²³

4. An Earnest Desire for Forgiveness.²⁴

True repentance always leads to faith.²⁵ Sorrow for sin which does not lead to faith, is not repentance but remorse, and often drives men to despair.²⁶

Faith includes

1. A Knowledge of the Facts of the Gospel.²⁷
 2. A Belief of the Facts.²⁸
 3. Trust or Confidence in Christ our Saviour.²⁹
- This trust is the chief part of faith.

True faith is not a mere matter of the head, but of the heart. It is not a mere intellectual belief that God exists or that Christ lived and died; but it is a firm confidence that Christ is actually our Saviour, and that all our sins are washed away by His precious blood.³⁰ Faith says, "The Son of God loved ³⁰I John 1:7. me, and gave Himself for me."³¹ ³¹Gal. 2:20.

True faith is always preceded by repentance. The impenitent have no promise of forgiveness, and therefore cannot have faith. They cannot believe a promise which has not been given to them.

Regeneration and Conversion. Those whom the Holy Spirit has brought to repentance and faith are in a state of regeneration and conversion. The change which has taken place in them is called a new birth or regeneration,³² because a new life has been planted in them.³³ It is called conversion,³⁴ because they have been converted or turned from sin to righteousness, from self to God.

³²John 3:5,6.

³³II Cor. 5:

³⁴Acts 3:19.

It is not necessary that a Christian should be able to point to the exact time of his conversion. The important question is not, "When were we converted?" but, "Are we now in a converted state?" that is, "Are we now penitent and believing?"

Justification. All those who have true faith are justified:³⁵ their sins are forgiven, and the righteousness of Christ is imputed (counted as belonging) to them.³⁶ When we believe in Christ, all that He has done and suffered for us is regarded by God as if we had done and suffered it ourselves;³⁷ for Christ was our substitute. Consequently, those who believe in Christ are justified for His sake; that is, they are pronounced by God to be righteous and fit to enter into heaven.

³⁵Rom. 5:1.†

Rom. 4:5.

³⁶Phil. 3:9.

³⁷II Cor. 5:21.

Rom. 8:1.†

By Faith Alone. We are justified and saved by faith alone, without works.³⁸ We shall enter heaven, not because we deserve to enter,³⁹ but only because we believe in Christ. Salvation is a Gift: acquired for us by Christ's holy life and innocent death; bestowed upon us freely by God's grace; and accepted by faith.⁴⁰ Our faith is not a merit on account of which we are forgiven, but it is the hand with which we reach out and accept the free gift of forgiveness which God offers for Christ's sake.

³⁸Rom. 3:28.†

³⁹Gal. 2:16.†

⁴⁰Eph. 2:8,9.†

Our own works have nothing to do with our justification.⁴¹ If God took them into consideration at all, they would condemn us; for at best we are imperfect and sinful creatures.⁴² In order to be saved, we need a perfect righteousness. Christ's righteousness alone is perfect. It becomes ours by faith.

And Sanctified. Those who have true faith are sanctified by the Holy Spirit; that is, they are made holy in heart and life.⁴³ While good works do not save us, they do and must follow faith as its fruit.⁴⁴ Believers do good works out of love to God and gratitude for His mercy. Faith that does not result in a holy life is a dead faith,⁴⁵ and cannot save. The Christian dare not live in sin.⁴⁶ He has become a new creature; for he is born again: and consequently he leads a new life. We shall, indeed, never become sinless in this world, but we must honestly and earnestly try to do God's will in all things.⁴⁷ We should grow more and more holy every day.⁴⁸ We cannot do this by our own power, but we can by the help of God. We should, therefore, be diligent and faithful in the use of the Word of God and the Sacraments; for these are the means which the Holy Ghost uses for our sanctification.*

And Preserved me in the True Faith. As it is the Holy Ghost who brings us to faith, so it is He who preserves us in it.⁴⁹ The world, the flesh, and the devil are enemies who seek to destroy our faith and to rob us of our salvation. We should constantly pray for strength to resist these enemies,⁵⁰ and should obey the promptings of the Holy Spirit. We must avoid wilful, intentional sin,⁵¹ and live a life of daily repentance. If we sin wilfully, we fall from grace and are lost, unless we come to true and lasting repentance. If we faithfully use the Means of Grace,

* Faith in Christ does not at once make us perfectly holy and sinless, as some persons maintain; but it takes away the guilt of our sin. We are completely justified and forgiven as soon as we believe; but we are not completely sanctified. Sanctification is a gradual process, which will be completed only when we are transformed and glorified in heaven.

CHAPTER XXI.

THE HOLY GHOST.

III. HIS WORKMANSHIP.

The Holy Christian Church, the Communion of Saints.

WHAT THE CHURCH IS. The Church is "The Communion of Saints" or fellowship of believers. It consists of all those persons who truly believe in Christ.¹ We call it the Workmanship of the Holy Ghost, because He brings men to faith and thus produces the Church. He calls, gathers, enlightens and sanctifies the whole Christian Church on earth, and preserves it in union with Jesus Christ in the true faith.²

¹Matt. 16:16,

²Eph. 5:25-27.

The Church may also be called the Holy Spirit's Workshop, because He abides and works in it through the Means of Grace,—the Word of God and the Sacraments.

WHEN FOUNDED. The Holy Christian Church was founded on the day of Pentecost, when the Holy Ghost was poured out upon the disciples.³ On that day the Gospel of the crucified and risen Saviour was first preached by the apostles, the first converts were made, and the first Christian baptisms were administered.

³Acts 2:1-41.

VISIBLE OR INVISIBLE. The Church is invisible, because we cannot read men's hearts nor tell who are real believers. But if we regard the Church as an external organization which includes all who profess to believe, it is visible. In this outward visible Church there are many persons who are not real believers. But Christ knows His own.⁴ The angels on the day of judgment will separate the hypocrites from the true Christians.⁵

⁴II Tim. 2:19.†

John 10:14.†

⁵Matt. 13:41,
42.

THE MARKS OF THE CHURCH. The Church is found wherever the Gospel is rightly taught and the Sacraments are rightly administered. For wherever God's Word is preached, some persons believe it,⁶ and where believers are, there is the Church.

⁶Isa. 55:10,
11.

THE CHURCH IS ONE. It consists of the true believers out of all the different churches, denominations, and sects. There is one Flock, with one Shepherd.⁷ The Church is the Body of which Christ is the Head.⁸

⁷John 10:16.

⁸Col. 1:18.

ITS NAMES. The Church is called Holy, because the Holy Spirit works in it and through it, and because its members, though not perfect, lead holy lives. It is called Christian, because it consists of those who believe in Christ. It is called Catholic or Universal, because it is meant to include all men everywhere. Catholic does not mean Roman Catholic.

Eph. 1:22

MILITANT AND TRIUMPHANT. The Church, consisting of true believers, is one and the same Church on earth and in heaven. On earth it is the Church Militant, because its members are still fighting the good fight of faith.⁹ In heaven it is the Church Triumphant, because its members have won the victory of faith.¹⁰ The only way into the Church Triumphant is through the Church Militant.

THE CHURCH'S WORK.

The Church is the agency or instrument which the Holy Spirit uses for the evangelization of the world.¹¹ It is the institution through which He does His work of applying redemption to the souls of men. The Church, therefore, has a work to do; namely, to make disciples of all men.

THE MEANS through which the Church, as an agency of the Holy Spirit, is to do its work are the Word of God and the Sacraments. They are sufficient for the purpose for which they are intended, because the Holy Spirit works through them and endows them with supernatural power.¹²

THE WORKMEN who are to preach the Word and administer the Sacraments are the ministers. They must be properly called and ordained by the Church.¹³ In the New Testament all pastors are called elders or bishops. It was only at a later period that the office of a bishop was made superior to that of elder pastor or minister. The office of an apostle was a separate and higher office. The apostles were the witnesses of Christ's redemption, and possessed miraculous powers. They have no successors. Ministers are the ambassadors of Christ, beseeching men to be reconciled to God.¹⁴ Christ speaks through them. He who hears them, hears Christ; he who despises them, despises Christ.¹⁵ If a minister should happen to be a hypocrite, his official acts, such as baptisms and the like, would still be valid.¹⁶ *Deacons*¹⁷ are officers whose duty it is to assist the pastor, and to look after the temporal interests of the congregation.

*Deaconesses*¹⁸ are consecrated to the work of love and ^{18Rom. 16:1.} mercy, and minister to the sick, the needy, the neglected, the ignorant, the fallen, and the friendless.

THE VARIOUS CHURCHES.

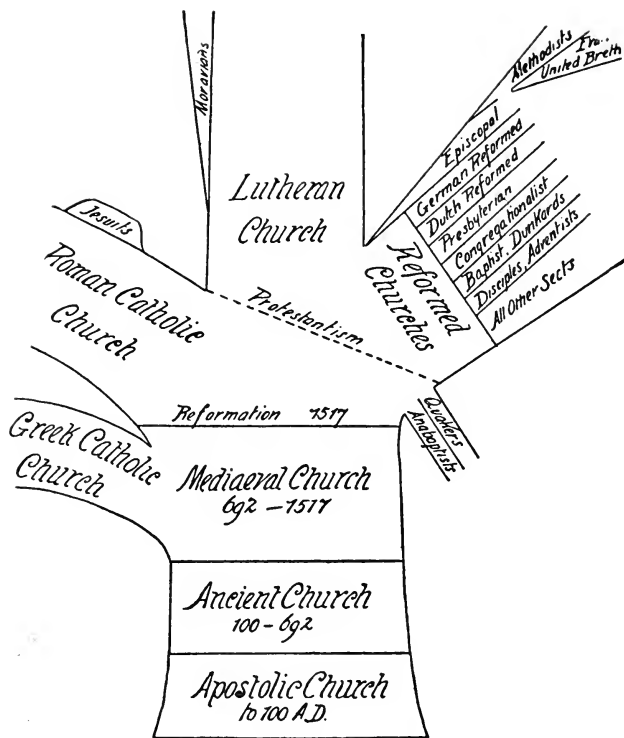

While the Church, in the strict sense of the word, is the "communion of saints" and therefore one, yet outwardly it has become divided, in the course of time, into many different churches, denominations, and sects. It contains Four Great Branches: The Greek Catholic Church; The Roman Catholic Church; The Evangelical Lutheran Church; and The Reformed Churches, comprising a great number of denominations and sects. The Lutheran Church and the Reformed Churches are called Protestant. (For the names and relations of various branches of the Church, see the accompanying Diagram, on page 106.)

THE EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH.

The Evangelical Lutheran Church is in reality the old original Church which came into existence on the day of Pentecost. Luther simply threw out the errors which had crept into the Church during the course of the centuries, and held fast the doctrines taught in God's Word. As a separate and distinct Church, the Lutheran Church dates from the year 1530, when the Augsburg Confession was read before the emperor and diet of the German Empire.* Her doctrines are laid down in her six Confessions, contained in the Book of Concord.

THE CHURCH OF THE PURE GOSPEL. The Lutheran Church receives the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the only rule and standard of religious teaching. The Roman Catholic Church

* Since a particular Church is no older than her distinctive confession, the Lutheran Church is more than thirty years older than the Roman Catholic Church; for the Augsburg Confession was adopted in 1530, while the Canons and Decrees of the Council of Trent, which are the Confession of the Roman Catholic Church, were not completed until 1563. The ecumenical creeds are accepted by both Churches, and therefore prove nothing as regards their relative age.

The Holy Christian Church.

accepts the tradition of the Church as of equal authority with the Holy Scriptures.

The Lutheran Church teaches the great central doctrine of the Gospel, that we are saved by faith alone without works. The Roman Catholic Church teaches that we are justified by faith and works.

The Lutheran Church abides by the teachings of Scripture even when she cannot understand them. The other Protestant Churches explain away and reject some teachings of Scripture because they cannot understand them.

HER NAME. The name Lutheran was first given to our Church by her enemies. But she accepted it, because she believes the doctrines which Luther taught. The name which she chose for herself is Evangelical (true to the Gospel). She is now known by both names taken together, Evangelical Lutheran.

WHERE FOUND. The Lutheran Church is found in nearly all parts of the world, especially in Germany, Scandinavia and the United States. She numbers more than eighty million baptized members, or nearly as many as all the other Protestant Churches combined. In the United States she has more than two and a quarter million confirmed members (statistics for 1920), and ranks third in size among the Protestant Churches of the country.

IN AMERICA. The Lutheran Church in America comprises two general bodies: The United Lutheran Church in America, organized in 1918, and the Synodical Conference, organized in 1872. To these general bodies there belong various synods. There are also a number of independent synods, some of them large and influential, which are not connected with any general body. Synods are often subdivided into conferences.

HER WORK. The Lutheran Church, like the Church in general, is to make disciples (Christians) of men. She is all the more bound to do her work, because she is the Church of the Pure Gospel. Her work is done in local congregations, in Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Inner Missions, and in maintaining the necessary institutions of learning (colleges, seminaries, etc.) and of mercy (orphanages, asylums, hospitals).

DUTIES OF HER MEMBERS. It is the duty of her members to lead a Christian life, to be loyal to their own Church, and to co-operate heartily in all her local and general work, for the glory of God and the salvation of immortal souls.

CHAPTER XXII.

THE HOLY GHOST.

IV. THE FRUITS OF HIS WORK.

The Forgiveness of Sins; the Resurrection of the Body; and the Life Everlasting.

THE fruits of the Holy Spirit's work in us are: 1. The Forgiveness of Sins. 2. The Resurrection of the Body and the Life Everlasting.

1. The Forgiveness of Sins has been acquired for me by my Saviour Jesus Christ;¹ but it is made mine by the Holy Ghost, who has brought me to faith and preserved me in it. For it is through faith that I obtain forgiveness.²

¹I John 1:7.†

²Rom. 5:1.

In which Christian Church. The forgiveness of sins is made mine in the Church through the Word of God and the Sacraments. Faith takes hold of and clings to the promises therein given. Special assurance of forgiveness is also given in Confession and Absolution.

He daily forgives abundantly all my Sins. Even if I am a sincere Christian, I am an imperfect and sinful creature, and I need God's forgiveness every day.³ By keeping me in a state of repentance and faith, the Holy Spirit secures to me the continuous forgiveness of all my sins. The Christian's life is a daily repentance and a daily believing that God for Christ's sake graciously pardons all our transgressions and shortcomings.⁴

⁴Luke 11:3,4.

And the Sins of all Believers. All who lead a life of daily repentance and faith are daily and abundantly forgiven.

2. The Resurrection of the Body and the Life Everlasting. The work of the Holy Spirit in me will not be completed until the last day.

He will raise up me and all the Dead at the Last Day.

The bodies of all men shall be raised from the dead and re-united with the souls from which they were parted at death.⁵ These bodies will be essentially the same which we had on earth, but they will be immortal and incorruptible.⁶ The bodies of the believers will be endowed with new and glorious properties, like the body of Christ after His resurrection.⁷ They will be fit tabernacles for the glorified souls to inhabit through all eternity. They will be spiritual bodies, freed from all the imperfections and limitations to which they were subject on earth. The bodies of those believers who are still alive at Christ's second coming shall undergo the same change in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump.⁸

And will grant Everlasting Life to me and to all who believe in Christ.⁹

The believers shall then enter upon the full and perfect enjoyment of eternal salvation.¹⁰ Here we have the forgiveness of sins, but there we shall have life everlasting. The believers shall obtain an eternal inheritance in heaven,¹¹ and enter upon the enjoyment of a bliss so exalted that we cannot form any adequate conception of it here on earth. There will be differences of glory proportioned to the strength of faith and the zeal in labor manifested on earth.¹² But all shall be perfectly happy. They shall be free from sin and from every evil,¹³ and dwell in the light of God's presence forever.¹⁴

Eternal Death. The impenitent and unbelieving shall be cast into eternal torment,¹⁵ and shall suffer indescribable pain and misery for ever.¹⁶ The greater their wickedness and neglected opportunities on earth, the deeper will be their remorse and anguish.¹⁷ Having refused to let the Holy Spirit make them fit for entrance into heaven,¹⁸ they shall be cast out into the only place for which they are fit, into hell.¹⁹

PART III.

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

CHAPTER XXIII.

PRAYER.

PRAYER is the conversation of the believing heart with God.¹ It is as necessary for the life of the soul, as breathing is for that of the body. As children of God we must live in communion with Him; and we cannot be Christians without prayer. For this reason God has given us His name to use in prayer, and the Saviour has taught us how to pray in the Lord's Prayer.

¹Ps. 19:14.

TO WHOM WE SHOULD PRAY. Our prayers should be addressed to God alone,² and not to the Virgin Mary, the saints, the angels, or any other creatures.

²Matt. 4:10.

WHY WE SHOULD PRAY. We should pray, 1. Because we constantly need God's mercy in temporal and spiritual things. 2. Because we owe God our thanks for his many benefits.³ 3. Because God has commanded us to pray.⁴ 4. Because God has promised to hear us.⁵

³Ps. 103.

Jas. 1:17.

⁴Matt. 6:9.

Matt. 26:41.

⁵Matt. 7:7, 8.†

Ps. 50:15.

⁶Luke 21:36.†

⁷Matt. 8:25.

⁸Matt. 15:22.

¹⁰Ps. 25:16, 17.

¹¹Matt. 26:41.

¹²Luke 18:13.

¹³Dan. 6:10.

¹⁴Josh. 24:15.†

¹⁵Matt. 18:20.†

20.†

¹⁶Eph. 6:18.†

¹⁷I Tim. 2:1.†

¹⁸Matt. 5:44.†

WHEN WE SHOULD PRAY. 1. Always;⁶ that is, our soul should live in constant communion with God, and always be open toward Him. 2. Whenever we feel special need of prayer: in danger,⁷ distress, anxiety,⁸ sickness,⁹ bereavement, sorrow,¹⁰ temptation,¹¹ or when we are burdened with the sense of our guilt.¹² 3. At fixed times:¹³ every morning and evening, at meal-times; in family worship;¹⁴ in church.¹⁵

FOR WHOM WE SHOULD PRAY. 1. For ourselves. 2. For our fellow-Christians.¹⁶ 3. For all men:¹⁷ for friends and foes,¹⁸ the poor and the rich, the afflicted and the tempted. 4. For the Church. 5. For the State.

OUR PRAYERS SHOULD CONTAIN: 1. Adoration. 2. Thanksgiving. 3. Confession. 4. Petition. 5. Intercession.

THE MANNER. Our prayers should be the sincere utterance of our hearts; otherwise they will be a mere mockery.¹⁹ They may be in our own words or those of another. It will often be profitable to use the prayers found in good prayer-books or in the Liturgy, and to draw largely from the Psalms, which are a treasury of good and beautiful prayers. We should not lengthen our prayers by vain repetitions, nor repeat the Lord's Prayer or any other prayer a certain number of times as if that were a merit.²⁰ Nor should we shorten our prayers through laziness, indifference, and the like. The Lord's Prayer should generally be added to our own prayers as a summary of those things for which we should pray.

¹⁹Matt. 6:5.

²⁰Matt. 6:7.

THE POSTURE which we assume should indicate reverence to God. We should kneel or stand with folded hands. If we are unable to assume either of these postures, we may pray in any position. We stand in church on Sunday, because it is the day of the Lord's resurrection and a day of joy. We should not sit still in church while others stand, unless we are too weak or ill to stand. Kneeling is an attitude of humiliation, particularly appropriate for the confession of sins.

IN CHRIST'S NAME. We should always pray in Christ's name, and never omit His name to please men or avoid offence; for our prayers are only heard for Christ's sake. We have the promise that whatever we ask in His name will be given to us.²¹ To pray in Christ's name means to pray, 1. As one who trusts in Christ and asks to be heard for His sake.²² 2. As one who prays in Christ's spirit, submitting all things to God's will, and saying with Christ, "Not my will, but Thine, be done."²³

²³Rom. 5:2.

²³Matt. 26:29.

Matt. 6:10.

²¹Jas. 5:16.†

IN FAITH. We should pray in faith, believing that God will answer our prayer for Jesus' sake.²⁴ If we do not pray in faith, we shall not be heard.²⁵

²⁵Jas. 1:6,7.

THE ANSWER TO PRAYER. God always answers the prayer of the believer. Those who ask and receive not, have either asked amiss,²⁶ or have not asked in faith. If we ask anything according to His will, He heareth us.²⁷ He answers our prayer, 1. By granting us what we ask, though perhaps after a long delay, by which He tries our faith and patience. 2. He grants us good things instead of the hurtful things for which we ignorantly ask. 3. He gives us strength to bear the burden which we pray to have removed,²⁸ and thus confers a greater blessing than the removal of the burden would be.

CHAPTER XXIV.

THE LORD'S PRAYER.

The Lord's Prayer is so-called because it was given to us by the Lord Jesus Christ.¹ It teaches us how to pray aright, and is the model after which we should fashion all our prayers. It shows us the manner in which we should come to God, and the things for which we should ask.

¹Matt. 6:9-13.
Luke 11:1-4

ITS CONTENTS. The Lord's Prayer contains an Introduction, Seven Petitions, and a Conclusion. The first three petitions regard God's glory, and deal with His Name, His Kingdom, and His Will; the last four regard our bodily and spiritual needs, and deal with our Daily Bread, Forgiveness, Temptation, and Deliverance from Evil. Six petitions, the first three and the last three, refer to spiritual gifts; and only one, the fourth, refers to earthly gifts. Thus we are taught that, when we pray, we should think first of God's glory; and that we should pray more for spiritual than for temporal benefits.

INTRODUCTION.

Our Father Who art in Heaven.

What is meant by this Introduction?

God would thereby affectionately encourage us to believe that He is truly our Father, and that we are His children indeed, so that we may call upon Him with all cheerfulness and confidence, even as beloved children entreat their affectionate parent.

This Introduction shows us the manner in which we should come to God in prayer; namely, as His children, who are asking their Father for what they need, and who are sure that He loves them and will answer their prayer.

Our Father.* God is our Father and we are

* Observe how the name "Father," by which we are here taught to address God, corresponds with the duty "to fear, love, and trust in Him above all things" as enjoined by the First Commandment.

²Gal. 3:26.† His children through Christ our Saviour.² We should therefore be sure that He will receive us kindly for Jesus' sake whenever we come before him with our prayers. We should call upon Him with all cheerfulness and confidence, even as beloved children entreat their affectionate parent.³

¹I John 3:1,2.
²Rom. 8:16.
³Matt. 7:11.†
⁴Rom. 8:15.†
⁵Heb. 4:16.

We are taught to say our and not my Father, because the Lord's Prayer was given to believers to use in their common worship as well as in their private devotions; and because we should pray not only for ourselves but for our fellow-believers and for all men.

Who Art in Heaven. An earthly father is not always able to do what his children ask, even if he desires to do so. But the Father to whom we here pray is our Heavenly Father, and is abundantly able to answer all our prayers.⁴ He not only loves us with an everlasting love, but is almighty, omniscient, and all-wise. He is able to do all things which He wills to do, and will answer all our prayers in the very way that is best for us.

Eph. 3:20.†

QUESTIONS.—1. Why is the Lord's Prayer so called? 2. What does it teach us? 3. What does it contain? 4. What can you say about the seven petitions? 5. What does the introduction show? 6. Why do we say Our Father? 7. How should this encourage us to call upon Him? 8. Why do we say Our Father? 9. What is to be said about our heavenly Father in comparison with earthly fathers?

SCRIPTURE VERSES.—Gal. 3:26. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

Matt. 7:11. If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

Rom. 8:15. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

Eph. 3:20. Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

CHAPTER XXV.

THE FIRST PETITION.

Hallowed be Thy name.

What is meant by this Petition?

The name of God is indeed holy in itself; but we pray in this petition that it may be hallowed also by us.

How is this effected?

When the Word of God is taught in its truth and purity, and we, as the children of God, lead holy lives in accordance with it; to this may our blessed Father in heaven help us. But whoever teaches and lives otherwise than as God's Word prescribes, profanes the name of God among us; from this preserve us, heavenly Father.

In this Petition we pray for grace to hallow God's name* by the pure teaching of His Word and by childlike obedience to it.

The Name of God means not only the names by which we address Him, but all by which He is known to us. Compare the Second Commandment.

Is indeed Holy in Itself.¹ God's name is holy, ^{1Ps. 99:3.} because He is holy. We cannot increase or diminish God's holiness by anything that we do. This petition does not imply, therefore, that we are to make God's name holy.

But we pray in this Petition that it may be hallowed also by us. We hallow God's name when we regard and treat it as holy; in other words, when we honor and glorify God by worshiping and serving Him in accordance with the revelation which He has given of Himself in His Word.²

Ps. 100:2,3.

I. HOW GOD'S NAME IS HALLOWED.

1. When the Word of God is taught in its Truth and Purity. God has revealed Himself to

* There is a parallel between this Petition and the Second Commandment. We here pray for grace to avoid what the Second Commandment forbids, and to do what it commands.

us in His Word, and it is only from that Word that we can learn to know Him and worship Him aright.² Those, therefore, who in the Church, the school, or the home, teach God's Word, as well as those who gladly hear, read, and learn it, hallow His name.⁴ But the Word must be taught in its truth and purity; that is, it must be taught as it is recorded in the Scriptures, with nothing added, taken away, or changed.⁵

⁴John 17:17.†
⁵Gal. 1:9.
Rev. 22:18,
19.

And we as the Children of God lead Holy Lives in accordance with it. In order to hallow God's name, we must not only hear but obey His Word.⁶ As God's children we should think, speak, and act according to the rule which He has laid down in His Word, and thus glorify His name.

⁶Jas. 1:22.†
Matt. 5:16.

To this may our Blessed Father in Heaven help us. We cannot preserve God's Word in its truth and purity against its foes, nor believe and obey it by our own strength; hence we pray for God's help.

II. HOW GOD'S NAME IS PROFANED.

But whoever teaches and lives otherwise than as God's Word prescribes, profanes the name of God among us.⁷ False teachers, who deny God's Word, or change it, or add to it, or subtract from it, profane the name of God, because they hide the glory of God from those who believe their teachings. Those who live otherwise than as God's Word prescribes, and are hypocrites or impenitent and unbelieving persons, profane God's name, because they refuse to glorify Him by obedience to His Word.

⁷Rom. 2:21-
24.
Tit. 1:16.

From this preserve us, Heavenly Father. We pray thus, because we are by nature inclined to error and sin, and have need of God's grace to preserve us from profaning His name.

QUESTIONS.—1. What do we pray for in this first petition? 2. What does the name of God mean? 3. Why is God's name holy in itself? 4. What does it mean to hallow God's name? 5. How is God's name hallowed? 6. Why do we pray for God's help? 7. How is God's name profaned? 8. Why do we pray God to preserve us from profaning His name?

SCRIPTURE VERSES.—John 17:6. I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world.

John 1:18. No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten

Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

John 17:17. Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

Jas. 1:22. But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

CHAPTER XXVI.

THE SECOND PETITION.

Thy kingdom come.

What is meant by this Petition?

The kingdom of God comes indeed of itself without our prayer; but we pray in this petition that it may come unto us also.

When is this effected?

When our heavenly Father gives us His Holy Spirit, so that by His grace we believe His holy Word, and live a godly life here on earth and in heaven forever.

In this Petition we pray that the Kingdom of God may come to us* and to all men; that is, that we all by true faith and a godly life may become members of the Church on earth and in heaven.

The Kingdom of God is the Kingdom which Christ has founded, and to which all who believe in Him belong. It is the Kingdom of Grace in this world and the Kingdom of Glory in the next.¹

¹Mark 1:15.

Matt. 25:34

Comes indeed of itself without our Prayer. Christ has established His kingdom and will continue to extend it, whether we pray for it or not.²

²Isa. 9:7.

But we pray in this Petition that it may come to us also; that is, into our hearts. In other words, we pray that we may become true Christians;³

³Matt. 7:21.

* Since the Kingdom of God comes to us through the Gospel, there is a close relation between this Petition and the Third Commandment, which commands us to "deem God's Word holy and willingly hear and learn it."

and if we are Christians, we pray that we may become better Christians.

^{38.†}
^{Mark 16:15.†} We here pray that God's kingdom may come to all men. If our prayer is sincere, then we must be willing also to give liberally, so that the Gospel may be preached to the heathen (Foreign Missions) and to the spiritually destitute in our own land (Home Missions and Inner Missions).

HOW GOD'S KINGDOM COMES TO US.

When our Heavenly Father gives us His Holy Spirit. Since only believers belong to God's kingdom, and we "cannot by our own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ our Lord," we pray in this petition that God would give His Holy Spirit to us,

[†]1 Cor. 12:3. So that by His Grace we believe His Word,⁵
[†]Tit. 2:11-13.† and live a godly life⁶ here on earth and in heaven forever. The Holy Spirit must teach us to repent of sin and to believe in Christ, and preserve us in a life of daily repentance and faith. Then God's kingdom will come to us more and more in this world, and in the next world we shall belong to it for ever.

QUESTIONS.—1. What do we pray in this petition? 2. What is meant by the kingdom of God? 3. How does God's kingdom come without our prayer? 4. What do we mean when we pray that it may come to us? 5. What is to be said about this petition and missions? 6. How does God's kingdom come to us? 7. Why do we need the Holy Spirit?

SCRIPTURE VERSES.—Matt. 9:37, 38. Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

Mark 16:15. And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

Tit. 2:11-13. For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world, looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER XXVII.

THE THIRD PETITION.

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

What is meant by this Petition?

The good and gracious will of God is done, indeed, without our prayer, but we pray in this petition that it may be done by us also.

When is this effected?

When God frustrates and brings to nought every evil counsel and purpose which would hinder us from hallowing the name of God and prevent His kingdom from coming to us,—such as the will of the devil, of the world, and of our own flesh; and when he strengthens us and keeps us steadfast in His Word and in the faith even unto our end. This is His gracious and good will.

In this Petition we pray for grace gladly to believe, do, and suffer all that God wills us to believe, do, and suffer, so that His name may be hallowed, and His kingdom may come.

Thy Will. God's will is, 1. That we should believe the Gospel and be saved.¹ 2. That we should obey His commandments and be holy.² 3. That we should willingly submit to all His dealings with us, and suffer patiently when He lays a cross on us.³

Be Done on Earth as it is in Heaven. We pray that God's will may be done by all men and especially by us, as heartily, as continually, and as completely as it is done by the holy angels.⁴

The Good and Gracious Will of God. The will of God is always good and gracious, because He always wills those things which He, in His wisdom and love,⁵ sees are best. He does all things well, even when we do not understand His ways.⁶

Is Done indeed without our Prayer. There will always be some persons who permit God to accom-

⁷Isa. 55:11. But we pray in this Petition that it may be done by us also;⁸ that is, that we may believe His Gospel, obey His Commandments, and trustfully permit Him to lead us in whatsoever paths He will.

WHAT WE PRAY GOD TO DO.

In order that God's good and gracious will may be done by us, all opposing wills must be overcome.⁹ We therefore pray God

1. To frustrate and bring to nought the Will of the Devil,¹⁰ of the World¹¹ (wicked persons), and of our own Flesh¹² (our natural heart).

CHAPTER XXVIII:

THE FOURTH PETITION.

Give us this day our daily bread.

What is meant by this Petition?

God gives, indeed, without our prayer, even to the wicked also, their daily bread; but we pray in this petition that He would make us sensible of His benefits, and enable us to receive our daily bread with thanksgiving.

What is implied in the words "our daily bread"?

All things that pertain to the wants and the support of this present life; such as food, raiment, money, goods, house and land, and other property; a believing spouse and good children; trustworthy servants and faithful magistrates; favorable seasons, peace and health; education and honor; true friends, good neighbors, and the like.

In this Petition we acknowledge that every good gift comes from God;¹ and we pray that He would give us, day by day, those things which we need for our earthly support and comfort, and would make us content and thankful. ¹Jas. 1:17.

THE PETITION ITSELF.

While we are to pray first and chiefly for spiritual blessings, the Saviour here teaches us that we may and should pray for temporal benefits also.

Give. By praying God to give us our daily bread, we acknowledge that it comes from Him.* He is the absolute owner of all things,² and divides to all men as He will. All that we have is His gift. He gives it as a blessing upon our labor; hence, we must work as well as pray.³ But without His blessing, our labor would be in vain.⁴ The farmer sows, but God gives the increase.

*I Cor. 10:26.

*II Thess. 3:10.

*Ps. 127:1.

Us. We are taught to pray not only for ourselves, but for others also. We should be concerned that they too may have their daily bread; and, when necessary, we should give them a portion of what God has first given to us, and thus become the means through which He supplies their wants.⁵

*Heb. 13:16.

This Day. We are not to pray for "much goods for many years," but only for this one day's needful supply. When the morrow comes, if we are still alive, we are to pray again.⁶ We are to depend upon God from day to day. We are, indeed, to make a proper provision for our future, but we are not to give way to anxious, unbelieving care about it.

*Matt. 6:34.†

Our. We ask for bread which we may call our own, bread honestly gotten, bread which God intends we shall have as a reward of our labor; not some one's else bread, and not such things as God, in His wisdom, sees fit to withhold from us.

Daily Bread. According to Luther's explanation in the Catechism, our daily bread includes

All Things which pertain to the Wants and the Support of this Present Life; such as:—

Food, raiment, to supply our bodily wants;

Money, Goods, House and Land, and Other

* Compare this Petition with the First Article of the Creed and its Explanation.

Property, by means of which we may procure the supply of our bodily wants ;

A Believing Spouse and Good Children, that we may have a good Christian home ;

Trustworthy Servants and Faithful Magistrates, that we may have the help and protection which we need for the enjoyment of our own ;

Favorable Seasons, Peace and Health, Education and Honor, True Friends, Good Neighbors, and the like,—all those things which increase our earthly well-being and happiness.

While we pray in this petition that God would give us all the things enumerated above, if He sees fit, we should remember that He is still giving us our daily bread when He gives us only those things which we actually must have for the support of our life.⁷

⁷I Tim. 6:8.

WHY WE PRAY THUS.

God gives indeed, without our Prayer, even to the Wicked⁸ also their Daily Bread ; for God is good, and seeks to lead men to repentance by His goodness.⁹

⁸Matt. 5:45.

⁹Rom. 2:4.

But we pray in this Petition that He would make us Sensible of His Benefits, so that we may acknowledge them as His gifts,¹⁰ and not ascribe them to our own efforts or to chance, as the worldly and unbelieving do.

¹⁰Deut. 8:10.

And enable us to receive our Daily Bread with Thanksgiving.¹¹ Since all the blessings we enjoy are God's gifts, bestowed without any worthiness on our part,¹² we pray that we may always receive them with thankful hearts, and express our gratitude with our lips and in our lives. We should give thanks at every meal, and in all our prayers.

¹¹Eph. 5:20.†

¹²Gen. 32:10.

Contentment. True thankfulness implies contentment with those gifts which God sees fit to bestow upon us.¹³ We must not murmur because He does not include in our daily bread some things which we desire to have ; nor dare we permit the withholding of those things to prevent us from being truly thankful for the many benefits which God does bestow upon us.

¹³Heb. 13:5.†

I Tim. 6:6-8.†

QUESTIONS.—1. What do we acknowledge and for what do we pray in this petition? 2. Why do we pray God to “give”? 3. Why do we pray, “give us”? 4. Why do we pray “this day”? 5. Why do we say our daily bread? 6. What does daily bread include? 7. How much must God give us in order to answer this prayer for daily bread? 8. Why does God give, even to the wicked? 9. What should we bear in mind with respect to all our blessings? 10. How should we receive our daily bread? 11. How should we express our gratitude? 12. What is to be said about contentment?

SCRIPTURE VERSES.—Matt. 6:34. Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Eph. 5:20. Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Heb. 13:5. Let your conversation be without covetousness: and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

I Tim. 6:6-8. But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out. And having food and raiment, let us be therewith content.

CHAPTER XXIX.

THE FIFTH PETITION.

And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

What is meant by this Petition?

We pray in this petition that our heavenly Father would not regard our sins, nor deny us our requests on account of them; for we are not worthy of anything for which we pray, and have not merited it; but that He would grant us all things through grace, although we daily commit much sin and deserve chastisement alone. We will, therefore, on our part both heartily forgive and also readily do good to those who may injure or offend us.

In this Petition we acknowledge our sinfulness, pray for forgiveness, and promise to forgive our fellow-men.

The word "And" connects this petition very closely with the preceding one. The daily forgiveness of our sins is as necessary for our souls as our daily bread is for our bodies.

AND FORGIVE US OUR TRESPASSES.

These words are at once a Confession of Sin, and a Prayer for Pardon.

1. A Confession. The praying of this petition presupposes a penitent state of heart. If we are not truly penitent, this petition is a mockery on our lips. We have need to confess our guilt, because

We daily commit much sin.¹ If we are true Christians, we do not sin wilfully and intentionally. But with our best efforts, we still sin much through weakness,² not only by commission, but still more by omission. Not a day passes by, in which we do not transgress God's law by thoughts and words and deeds. We often do the wrong and omit doing the right without even knowing that we have done so.³

¹I John 4:8.

²Rom. 7:19

³Ps. 19:12.

And deserve Chastisement (Punishment) alone. Our sins make us guilty and deserving of punishment, even though they be sins of weakness. We must not excuse or extenuate them. God never excuses any one. But if we penitently confess our sins, He will forgive us for Jesus' sake.⁴

⁴Ps. 32:5.†

I John 1:9.

2. A Prayer for Pardon. As in the fourth petition we daily pray "Give," so in this fifth petition we daily pray "Forgive." Since Jesus has taught us to pray thus, and we pray as God's children, this petition presupposes that we pray in faith. We pray as those who believe that God will be gracious and merciful to us for Jesus' sake.

We pray in this Petition that our Heavenly Father would not regard our Sins,⁵ but would look upon the righteousness which Jesus has acquired for us "with His holy and precious blood and His innocent sufferings and death."⁶

⁷I John 1:7.

Nor deny us our Requests on account of them.

⁷Ps. 130:3.†

Ps. 143:2.

If God should regard our sins, He would send only punishment upon us,⁷ and not give us any of those benefits for which we ask in our prayer.

For we are not Worthy of Anything for which we pray, and have not merited it. Nothing which we have done or are able to do can make amends for our sins, or earn any blessing from God.⁸ We therefore pray that He would grant us all things through grace alone for Jesus' sake.

AS WE FORGIVE THOSE WHO TRESPASS AGAINST US.

3. A Promise to Forgive our Fellow-men. God's

⁹Eph. 3:32.

¹¹Matt. 18:32-

mercy to us must move us to be merciful to others.⁹ If it does not, God will withdraw His mercy from us,¹⁰ as the master withdrew his from the unmerciful servant in the parable.¹¹ Forgiving others is not a merit which entitles us to receive God's forgiveness. It follows as a result of God's mercy to us. Because God so mercifully forgives us for Jesus' sake, we promise that

We will, therefore, on our part, both heartily forgive and also readily do good to those who may injure or offend us. No matter how greatly others may have sinned against us, we have sinned much more against God. If He is willing to forgive us our great debt, we should be willing to forgive our fellow-men their lesser debt. If we refuse to forgive others, God will lay our own sins to our charge, and punish us.

QUESTIONS.—1. What three things do we do in this petition? 2. What is to be said about the close connection between this petition and the preceding one? 3. What does this petition presuppose? 4. Why do we need to confess our guilt to God? 5. Is sin ever excusable? 6. Why does this petition presuppose faith? 7. What do we pray God to do with our sins? 8. If God regarded our sins, how would He treat our requests? 9. Why do we promise to forgive others? 10. Why must we be willing to forgive them?

SCRIPTURE VERSES.—Ps. 32: 5. I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin.

Ps. 130: 3. If thou, LORD, shouldst mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?

CHAPTER XXX.

THE SIXTH PETITION.

And lead us not into temptation.

What is meant by this Petition?

God, indeed, tempts no one to sin; but we pray in this petition that God would so guard and preserve us, that the devil, the world, and our own flesh may not deceive us, nor lead us into error and unbelief, despair, and other great and shameful sins; and that, though we may be thus tempted, we may nevertheless finally prevail and gain the victory.

As children of God we must not only seek forgiveness for past sins, but be anxious to avoid sin in the future. We therefore pray that, as far as is possible according to His gracious will, God would keep us from being tempted, and would give us strength to overcome when we are tempted.

If we are in earnest in praying this Petition, we will not run into temptation ourselves,¹ nor lead others ¹Matt. 4:7. into it.

HOW WE ARE TEMPTED.

God indeed tempts No One to Sin: for He wishes us to do good, and not evil. But He leads us into circumstances in which we are tried, and must decide for or against Him, for good or for evil. This is the sense in which the Bible speaks of God as tempting persons.² He tries or tests us. Remembering that we are weak, we pray in this petition that God would spare us such trials as much as is possible according to His will, and strengthen us in them, that we may be faithful.

The Devil, the World, and our own Flesh tempt us to Sin. These are the great enemies of our souls, who will lead us to destruction if we do not earnestly resist them and repel their temptations.

WHAT WE PRAY.

1. That we may not be Deceived or Mised by these Enemies.

We pray in this Petition that God would so guard and preserve us, that

³Gen. 3:4,5. The Devil, who puts evil thoughts into our hearts,³

II Cor. 11:3. The World (wicked persons in the world),⁴ ⁴Prov. 1:10.† which tempts us by example, allurements, and John 15:18. threats,

⁵Rom. 8:7. † And our own Flesh (our natural heart),⁵ which inclines and urges us to sin,

May not deceive us, by promising us happiness in the paths of sin, while in reality such paths lead only to misery and destruction.⁶

⁶Matt. 7:13, 14.† Nor lead us into error and unbelief, and thus into ruin, since our salvation depends on believing the truth as it is in Jesus; nor into

Despair; because we are lost if we despair of God's mercy, instead of believing His precious promises in Christ;

And other great and shameful sins, in addition to the error, unbelief, and despair mentioned above.

2. That we may Overcome these Enemies and be saved.

And that, though we may be thus tempted, we may nevertheless finally prevail, and gain the victory. The struggle against these enemies is a warfare (the good fight of faith)⁷ which lasts to the end of our days. We dare never think that we are safe without further watchfulness, effort, and prayer.⁸ If we sometimes fall, we must not despair nor give up, but repent and determine to do better. If we earnestly pray for God's help, arm ourselves with His Word, and beware of false security, we shall be enabled to overcome these foes more and more each day.⁹ And when, at last, our end approaches and the warfare is over, God will give us the victory, and bestow upon us for Jesus' sake the crown of life.¹⁰

QUESTIONS.—1. Why do we pray this petition? 2. What do we mean by it? 3. If we are in earnest in praying it, what will we not do? 4. In what sense does God tempt? 5. Who tempts us to sin? 6. What do we pray against these enemies? 7. How does the devil tempt us? the world? our own flesh? 8. How do they try to deceive us? 9. Into what do they try to mislead us? 10. How long must we fight against these enemies? 11. If we fall, what should we do? 12. How may we overcome these foes? 13. When only shall we be completely victorious over them.

CHAPTER XXXI.

THE SEVENTH PETITION.

But deliver us from evil.

What is meant by this Petition?

We pray in this petition, as in a summary, that our heavenly Father would deliver us from all manner of evil, whether it affect the body or the soul, property or character, and at last, when the hour of death shall arrive, grant us a happy end, and graciously take us from this world of sorrow to Himself in heaven.

As in the sixth Petition we pray to be preserved from sinning, so in this seventh Petition we pray to be delivered from all the evil which has come upon our race as a consequence of sin.* But this petition comes last, because we should be more anxious to be delivered from the sin itself, than from the evil results which follow upon it.

We Pray in this Petition as in a Summary. All the petitions which precede it are included in this last one.

That our Heavenly Father would Deliver us from all Manner of Evil:—

I. IN THIS WORLD.

Whether it affect the Body,—sickness, pain, hunger, thirst, destitution,

Or the Soul,—sin, impenitence, unbelief, sorrow, anxiety, care, despondency, insanity, and the like,

Property,—poverty, want, famine, fire, flood, wars, riots, etc.,

Or Character,—disgrace, slander, and the like.

How we pray for this Deliverance. God wills that we should sometimes suffer affliction, in order that

* There is a very close connection between the last two petitions, marked by the word "But." "Temptation will not cease until deliverance from evil [and from the evil one] has come; and again, when deliverance from evil has come, temptation will cease to assail us."—Luehrs.

our repentance and faith may be increased.¹ Consequently, our prayer for deliverance from evil in this world is a prayer: 1. That, whenever it is possible according to His will, God would ward off affliction from us. 2. That He would give us grace to bear patiently those afflictions which He sends,² and would make them a blessing in disguise for us. 3. That in His own time He would remove from us whatever distresses us.³

We should not grow discouraged or despondent under affliction, but trust in God's mercy and bear our cross cheerfully.⁴ And we should see to it that we do not, by our own sin and folly, bring upon ourselves evils which might have been avoided.

II. IN THE NEXT WORLD.

In this world we shall have to endure some evils as long as we live.⁵ But if we are faithful, God will not only overrule them all for our good,⁶ but will finally, at death, deliver us from all evil.⁷

And at last, when the Hour of Death shall arrive, grant us a Happy End. An unhappy death is the worst of all evils. But a happy death will more than compensate for all the evils endured in this world.⁸ A happy death will be ours, if we persevere in the faith and die in Christ.⁹ For then God will pardon all our sins for Jesus' sake,

And graciously take us from this World of Sorrow to Himself in Heaven.¹⁰ There all evils shall cease for ever.¹¹ For sin, and all that follows upon sin, shall be no more. In this entrance into heaven at last, all our highest hopes and prayers shall find their complete and eternal fulfilment.

CHAPTER XXXII.

THE CONCLUSION.

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

What is meant by the word "Amen"?

That I should be assured that such petitions are acceptable to our heavenly Father, and are heard by Him; for He Himself has commanded us to pray in this manner, and has promised that He will hear us. Amen, amen, that is, yea, yea, it shall be so.

In this Conclusion we give the reason why we address our prayer to our heavenly Father, and why we expect to be heard. It contains a Doxology, and an Amen.

THE DOXOLOGY.

For Thine is the Kingdom: Thou art King and Lord of all;¹ from Thee all gifts must come.²

And the Power: with Thee nothing is impossible;³ Thou art able to do abundantly above all that we ask or think.⁴

² Jas. 1:17.

³ Luke 1:37.

⁴ Eph. 3:20.

And the Glory: Thou art God alone,⁵ infinite in holiness, power, and love; to Thy name alone be all praise.⁶

⁶Ps. 115:1.

For ever and ever. The kingdoms of earth and their glory pass away; but Thy kingdom and power and glory endure for evermore.⁷

⁷Dan. 4:3.

Ps. 145:11-13.†

THE AMEN.

Amen means Verily. By adding it to our prayer we express our assurance,

That such Petitions are Acceptable to our Heavenly Father and are heard by Him. The petitions for temporal and spiritual blessings which we here bring before Him are the very ones which He desires us to present.⁸

⁸I John 5:14.

For He Himself has taught us to pray in this Manner, and to ask for these things,

And has promised that He will hear us.⁹ The promise is, that whatsoever we ask in Christ's name shall be given to us.¹⁰ Hence we add at the end of our prayer: Amen, that is, it shall be so; God will answer our prayer.¹¹

QUESTIONS.—1. Why do we add the conclusion to the Lord's Prayer? 2. What two parts does the conclusion contain? 3. What do we mean by saying, "Thine is the kingdom? the power? the glory? forever? 4. What does Amen mean? 5. Why do we add it to our prayer? 6. Why are we sure that these petitions are acceptable to our heavenly Father? 7. What promise have we with respect to our prayers?

CHAPTER XXXIII.

THE MEANS OF GRACE.

The spiritual blessings spoken of in the Creed and asked for in the Lord's Prayer are brought to us through the Means of Grace.

WHAT THEY ARE. The Means of Grace are : 1. The Word of God ; 2. The Sacrament of Holy Baptism ; 3. The Sacrament of the Altar. They are called the means of grace, because they are the means or vehicles through which God's grace comes to us. It is through the Word of God and the Sacraments that the Holy Spirit does His work in us.

THE WORD OF GOD.

THE CHIEF MEANS OF GRACE is the Word of God.¹ For through it the Holy Spirit "calls, enlightens, sanctifies, and preserves us in the true faith." Even in the Sacraments, the principal thing is the Word of God with its command and promise ; and without the Word of God there would be no sacrament.

ITS POWER. The Holy Spirit is always in the Word, and gives it saving power. Through the Law and the Gospel which the Word contains, He brings to repentance and faith all those persons who do not wilfully resist His grace.² Through it He not only tells us what to do, but gives us the power to obey.³ Because He is in the Word, "it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth."⁴ (Compare what is said concerning the Bible in Chapter I., and concerning the Work of the Holy Spirit in Chapter XX.)

THE SACRAMENTS.

WHAT A SACRAMENT IS. A sacrament is a holy ordinance, instituted by Christ, in which invisible heavenly gifts are bestowed upon us through the use of visible earthly elements.

HOW MANY THERE ARE. In the sense in which we use the word "Sacrament" there are only two holy ordinances to which the name may be applied; namely, Baptism and the Lord's Supper. For these are the only two which possess the three essentials of a sacrament: 1. The Command of Christ; 2. The Use of Earthly Elements; 3. The Communication of a Heavenly Gift.*

OLD TESTAMENT TYPES. The rite of Circumcision, practised in Old Testament times, was a type of Baptism; and the Passover was a type of the Lord's Supper.

THEIR PURPOSE. The sacraments have been given to us in order that they might bring a special comfort to our souls, in addition to the comfort which we find in God's Word. For the Grace of God which is offered to all men in the Word, is brought and sealed to each believer individually in the sacraments. My baptism assures me that all the blessings of Christ's redemption are meant for me: and the Lord's Supper assures me that Christ's body and blood were given and shed for me for the remission of my sins.

FAITH NECESSARY. Without faith, no one can obtain any benefit from the sacraments. But he who believes receives the heavenly gifts offered in them, and has the blessed assurance that he is a child of God and an heir of heaven.

* The Roman Catholic Church teaches that there are seven sacraments: Baptism, Confirmation, Confession, the Lord's Supper, Ordination, Marriage, and Extreme Unction. But five of these lack one or more of the essentials of a sacrament enumerated above.

QUESTIONS.—How are the spiritual blessings spoken of in the Creed and asked for in the Lord's Prayer brought to us? 2. What are the Means of Grace? 3. Why are they so called? 4. What is the chief means of grace? 5. Why does the Word of God possess saving power? 6. What is a Sacrament? 7. How many Sacraments are there? 8. What are the three essentials of a sacrament? 9. What is the purpose of the sacraments? 10. Does every one who receives the sacraments derive a benefit from them?

PART IV.

THE SACRAMENT OF HOLY BAPTISM.
CHAPTER XXXIV.

I. What is Baptism?

Baptism is not simply water, but it is the water comprehended in God's command, and connected with God's Word.

What is that Word of God?

It is that which our Lord Jesus Christ spoke, as it is recorded in the last chapter of Matthew, verse 19: "Go ye, and teach (make disciples of) all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost."

WHAT BAPTISM IS.

BAPTISM CONSISTS in applying water to a person "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost," as Christ has commanded.¹

Baptism is not simply Water. In one sense, indeed, the water used in baptism is simply ordinary water from well, cistern, or stream;² but when used in baptism it ceases to be simply water, and possesses special value and power, because

It is the Water Comprehended in God's Command. The water of baptism is a water which God has commanded us to use,—His command being, "Go ye and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them," etc.

And Connected with God's Word. In baptism, water is applied "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost"; and thus it is used in connection with the very words of Christ Himself. The water and the Word together make the sacrament.

ITS NECESSITY. Baptism is necessary for all, because Christ has commanded that all should be baptized, and has connected the blessing of salvation with this sacrament.³ Those who despise it and refuse to be baptized, cannot be saved. But if any person should desire baptism and be unable to obtain it, he would not on that account be lost. It is not the lack of baptism, but the despising of baptism that condemns.

Baptism is to be administered by the pastor. But if there should be extreme peril of death before a minister could possibly arrive, any member of the Church may baptize. Such lay-baptism, however, should afterwards be announced in church, and be declared valid.

WHO ARE TO BE BAPTIZED.

The command of Christ to "make disciples" includes "all nations." All those persons, therefore, who are willing to become disciples are to be baptized; namely, adults who have received the proper religious instruction and profess faith in Christ, and children whom competent sponsors present for baptism.

INFANT BAPTISM. Infants should be baptized at a very early age, and thus be received into God's covenant as His children. Since they cannot be instructed before baptism, they should be carefully instructed afterwards⁴ and be brought up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord,⁵ so that they may always remain faithful and obedient children of God.

⁴Matt. 28:20

⁵Eph. 6:4.

SPONSORS answer the questions for the child at its baptism, and promise to see to it that the child is properly instructed and trained in the Christian religion. Sponsors must themselves be members in good standing in the Church.

WHY CHILDREN SHOULD BE BAPTIZED.* As

* Baptists sometimes argue against infant baptism on the basis of the Scripture passage: "Go ye and teach all nations, baptizing them," etc., claiming that Christ says first teach and then baptize. But, as a matter of fact, Christ mentions baptizing before teaching in this passage. For in its correct translation, as given in the Revised Version of the English Bible, it reads, "Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you." If the order in which the two words "baptize" and "teach" occur in this passage proved anything with respect to the baptism of infants, it would prove that they should be baptized. For in the case of children, baptizing comes first and teaching follows, just as in the passage quoted.

children were received into the Old Testament covenant by the rite of circumcision, which was a type of baptism, so God desires that they shall be received into the New Testament covenant by baptism. Some of the reasons for infant baptism are the following:—

1. Children form part of the “nations” whom Christ commanded His disciples to baptize.

¹John 3:5,6.†
²Job 14:4.

2. They are by nature sinful and need God’s grace as well as adults.⁶ While they have not yet committed any conscious transgressions, they have inherited a sinful heart, and the germs of sin in them will soon grow into actual transgressions.

³Luke 18:16.

3. Christ has commanded that little children should be brought to Him, and we obey this command by baptizing them and teaching them.⁷

⁴Mark 10:14,
15.†

4. Christ says of children, “Of such is the kingdom of God”;⁸ and they have a right, therefore, to receive that sacrament by which we enter God’s kingdom.

⁵Acts 2:39.

5. The promise of God’s grace is given to children as well as to adults.⁹

¹⁰Matt. 18:6.

6. Children have capacity for faith.¹⁰

¹¹Acts 16:33.

7. The apostles baptized whole families.¹¹

HOW BAPTISM IS TO BE ADMINISTERED.

In His command to baptize, Christ does not specify any mode of baptism. It may be performed in any one of three ways; namely, by sprinkling, pouring, or immersion. One mode of baptism is just as valid as the others. The most convenient mode, the one best adapted to all circumstances, and the one most widely used in the Christian Church, is by pouring or sprinkling. Immersion is not advisable in our climate, and in many cases, such as severe sickness, it could not possibly be employed.

IMMERSION NOT ESSENTIAL. The word “baptize” does not necessarily mean to immerse, as the Baptists claim. When the Saviour instituted this sacrament,

He did not coin a new word, but employed one already in use. The original Greek word from which our English word "baptize" is derived, is used in the New Testament in the sense of washing¹² and sprinkling.¹³ The baptism of the three thousand on the day of Pentecost¹⁴ and of the Philippian jailor¹⁵ could hardly have been by immersion, on account of the scarcity of water available for such a purpose. When Jesus was baptized, He "came up out of the water";¹⁶ but it is quite probable that He stood in the stream while John poured water on His head.

¹²Mark 7:4.¹³I Cor. 10:2.¹⁴Acts 2:41.¹⁵Acts 16:33.¹⁶Matt. 3:16.

THE ESSENCE OF BAPTISM consists in applying water "in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost"; and its gracious effect depends, not on the amount of water that is used, but on the Word of God with which the water is connected.

QUESTIONS.—1. What does baptism consist in? 2. Why is baptism not simply water? 3. What is meant by "water comprehended in God's command"? 4. What is meant by "water connected with God's Word"? 5. What is to be said about the necessity of baptism? 6. Who are to be baptized? 7. What is to be said about infant baptism? 8. Who may be sponsors, and what is their duty? 9. Give some reasons for infant baptism. 10. What is to be said about the mode of baptism? 11. Why is immersion not essential? 12. In what does the essence of baptism consist?

SCRIPTURE VERSES.—John 3:5, 6. Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

Mark 10:14, 15. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

CHAPTER XXXV.

II. What gifts or benefits does Baptism confer?

It works forgiveness of sins, delivers from death and the devil, and confers everlasting salvation on all who believe, as the Word and promise of God declare.

What are such words and promises of God?

Those which our Lord Jesus Christ spoke, as they are recorded in the last chapter of Mark, verse 16: "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned."

THE BENEFITS OF BAPTISM.

Baptism is God's means of receiving us into His covenant, and opening up to us all the treasures of Christ's redemption. Through this sacrament He adopts us as His children and receives us into membership in His Church.¹ We are baptized in (into) the name of the Father (who sent His Son to save us), and of the Son (who died to redeem us), and of the Holy Ghost (who applies Christ's redemption to our souls). Therefore every baptized person may say, "God is my Father, Christ is my Redeemer, the Holy Ghost is my Sanctifier, and all the benefits of Christ's redemption are offered to me." Hence we declare of baptism, that

¹Gal. 3:26, 27.†
²Acts 2:38.†
Acts 22:16.
Eph. 5:25,26.
³Rom. 6:3.†
⁴Mark 16:16.
It works Forgiveness of Sins,² delivers from Death and the Devil, and confers Everlasting Salvation. These are the very benefits which Christ has acquired for me by His innocent sufferings and death (see Article II. of the Creed, Chapter XIX.). And since I have been "baptized into Christ's death,"³ all these benefits belong to me if I only accept them by faith.⁴ I am regarded by God as having already suffered the full penalty of my sins in Christ's death, and for His sake I am pardoned and saved.

On all who Believe. Faith is the hand with which we grasp and hold fast the treasures of God's grace offered in this sacrament. The benefits are offered to every one who is baptized, but they are accepted and possessed only by him who believes.

As the Word and Promise of God declare.

The benefits belong to all who are baptized and believe, because God has said so.⁵ He has promised, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved."

⁵Numb. 23:
19.†

WITHOUT FAITH baptism will not save any one. "He that believeth not shall be damned" even though he is baptized. For while such a person has been adopted as God's child, he is a disobedient and rebellious child, and therefore is disinherited, and loses the heavenly inheritance⁶ which would have been his, if he had remained faithful.

⁶I Pet. 1:4.

BAPTISM PERMANENT. Baptism, once properly administered, is not to be repeated. It is a permanent covenant between God and us. While men are often unfaithful to their covenant, God never is.⁷ He bestows the blessings of baptism on all who comply with its conditions. Having received us by baptism as His children, He ever afterwards remains our loving heavenly Father, to whom we may turn with fullest confidence. And if any who have fallen from grace repent and seek His mercy, they find Him standing with open arms to receive them.⁸ Such persons need not be re-baptized; their old baptism stands. A rebellious son who repents needs not to be re-adopted, but needs only to be forgiven.

⁷II Cor. 1:20.
Rom. 3:3.

⁸Luke 15:11-24.

III. How can water produce such great effects?

It is not the water, indeed, that produces these effects, but the Word of God which accompanies and is connected with the water, and our faith which relies on the Word of God connected with the water. For the water without the Word of God is simply water, and no baptism. But when connected with the Word of God, it is a baptism, that is, a gracious water of life and a washing of regeneration in the Holy Ghost; as St. Paul says to Titus in the third chapter, verses 5-8: "According to His mercy He saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; which He shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ, our Saviour; that being justified by His grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. This is a faithful saying."

WHY BAPTISM HAS POWER TO CONFER SUCH BENEFITS.

It is not the Water, indeed, that produces these Effects. Water alone cannot wash away sins. Yet the water of baptism is necessary, because Christ has commanded its use, and has connected the promise of salvation with it.

But the Word of God which accompanies and is connected with the Water. It is the Word of God, with its command and promise, that makes baptism a sacrament, and gives it power to confer such great benefits.⁹

⁹John 6:63.

And our Faith which relies on the Word of God connected with the Water.* The baptism is a real baptism and offers these great benefits, whether we believe or not. But the benefits become ours, only when we believe the promises of God.¹⁰ ¹⁰Mark 16:16.

It is a gracious Water of Life, because the Word and promise of God, which are connected with it, give it power to bestow life and salvation on all who believe.

And a "Washing of Regeneration" in the Holy Ghost, because it is the means through which the Holy Ghost causes us to be "born again," as God's children.

* The story of Naaman the leper (II Kings 5: 8-14) illustrates how water, the Word of God, and faith can produce great effects. It was not the water of the Jordan that cured Naaman; yet he could not have been cured without the water, because the promise of healing was connected with its use. When he believed the Word of promise and used the water as he was commanded, he was healed. So the water, the Word, and our faith, which trusts in the Word, cleanse us from the leprosy of sin.

QUESTIONS.—1. What does God do for us through baptism? 2. What may every baptized person say? 3. What benefits does baptism confer? 4. Who has acquired these benefits for you, and how? 5. Why do they become yours through baptism? 6. What has faith to do with the reception of these benefits? 7. How do we know that baptism confers all these benefits on all who believe? 8. What is to be said about those who are baptized but do not believe? 9. What is to be said about the permanence of baptism? 10. Why has baptism power to confer such great benefits? 11. Why is it a "gracious water of life," and a "washing of regeneration."

SCRIPTURE VERSES.—Gal. 3:26, 27. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ.

Acts 2:38. Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

Rom. 6:3. Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?

Numb. 23:19. God is not a man, that he should lie; neither the son of man, that he should repent: hath he said, and shall he not do it? or hath he spoken, and shall he not make it good?

READING.—Naaman, II Kings 5:1-14.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

IV. What does such baptizing with water signify?

It signifies that the old Adam in us is to be drowned and destroyed by daily sorrow and repentance, together with all sins and evil lusts; and that again the new man should daily come forth and rise, that shall live in the presence of God in righteousness and purity forever.

Where is it so written?

St. Paul, in the epistle to the Romans, chapter 6, verse 4, says: "We are buried with Christ by baptism into death; that like as He was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life."

THE DUTY WHICH BAPTISM IMPOSES.

Baptism bestows upon us the great privilege of being children of God; but it also imposes upon us the duty to live and act as God's children. Every one who is baptized promises, either with his own lips or through his sponsors, that he will live thus. God is always faithful to His part of the baptismal covenant; we should always be faithful to ours. Our duty is two-fold:—

1. The Old Adam in us is to be drowned and destroyed by Daily Sorrow and Repentance, together with all Sins and Evil Lusts. By the “old Adam in us” is meant our old sinful self, as we are by nature. For we are born into the world with a sinful heart and a natural inclination to evil. This evil nature still clings to us even after we have been “born again” into sonship with God.¹ This old sinful self, together with the sins and lusts to which it prompts us, must be suppressed, subdued, and gradually destroyed.² We should gain the mastery over it more and more every day. We shall do this, if we daily mourn over our sinfulness, and ask God for Christ’s sake to grant us forgiveness and strength.

2. The New Man should daily come forth and rise, that shall live in the Presence of God in Righteousness and Purity forever. By the “new man” is meant our new self,—what we have become by the work of the Holy Spirit in us. For if we have been baptized and believe, there has been implanted in us a new life. We have become new creatures,³ who by God’s grace hate sin and desire from the heart to do God’s will alone. As the old man in us should daily become weaker and gradually die, so the new man in us should daily grow stronger,⁴ and cause us to live in constantly increasing righteousness and purity here on earth,⁵ till at last we are received into God’s presence for Jesus’ sake, and live before Him in perfect righteousness and purity forever.

CONFIRMATION.

The rite of confirmation is closely connected with the baptism of children. For the children who have been baptized are afterwards to be taught “to observe all things whatsoever Christ has commanded”;⁶ and, when they have reached an age at which they are able to examine themselves, they should be confirmed.

⁸Matt. 28:20.

PRECEDED BY INSTRUCTION. Confirmation is to be preceded by thorough instruction in the doctrines and duties of the Christian religion. In addition to the instruction received in the home and the Sunday-school, those who desire to be confirmed are specially instructed in the catechetical class by the pastor. Confirmation is the Church's testimony that the catechumens have received the necessary instruction to fit them for intelligent and earnest participation in the full privileges of Church membership. This instruction is the principal thing, and without it confirmation would lose its meaning.

WHAT CONFIRMATION IS. In confirmation the catechumen makes no new promises, but repeats with his own lips the confession of faith and the promise of faithfulness to Christ which were made for him by his sponsor at his baptism. Thereupon the minister lays his hand upon the head of each catechumen, and the minister and congregation pray that God would give to each His Holy Spirit to keep him in the faith and to cause him to grow in holiness.

WHY WE CONFIRM. Confirmation is not commanded in the Scriptures, but is a useful ordinance of the Church. It does not make us members of the Church; for we become members by baptism; but it admits us to communicant membership in the Church. Those who have been confirmed are admitted to the Lord's Supper. They are also entitled to act as sponsors at the baptism of children. The right to vote depends upon the constitution of the particular congregation.

QUESTIONS.—1. What duty does baptism impose? 2. In what two-fold way is this duty to be performed? 3. What is meant by "the old Adam in us"? 4. What shall be done with our old sinful self? 5. How shall we succeed in gaining the mastery over it? 6. What is meant by the "new man"? 7. What does our new self prompt us to do? 8. What should the new man in us do? 9. What is to be done with children who have been baptized? 10. By what is confirmation to be preceded? 11. What is to be said about the importance of this instruction? 12. Tell what confirmation is? 13. Why do we confirm? 14. What privileges does confirmation confer?

PART V.

THE SACRAMENT OF THE ALTAR.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

I. What is the Sacrament of the Altar?

It is the true body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, under the bread and wine, given unto us Christians to eat and to drink, as it was instituted by Christ Himself.

Where is it so written?

The holy evangelists, Matthew, Mark, and Luke, together with St. Paul, write thus: "Our Lord Jesus Christ, the same night in which He was betrayed, took bread; and when He had given thanks, He brake it, and gave it to His disciples and said, Take, eat; this is My body, which is given for you: this do in remembrance of Me. After the same manner also He took the cup, when He had supped, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it: this cup is the New Testament in My blood, which is shed for you, for the remission of sins: this do, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of Me."

ITS NAMES. This sacrament is called: 1. The Sacrament of the Altar, because it is administered at the altar. 2. The Lord's Supper, because it was instituted by the Lord while the disciples were eating the Passover Supper. 3. The Table of the Lord, because the Lord here gives food and drink to our souls. 4. The Communion, because it is a communion of bread and wine with the body and blood of Christ, a communion of believers with Christ, and a communion of believers with one another. 5. The Eucharist—a name derived from a Greek word meaning to give thanks—because the administration of the Lord's Supper is attended with thanksgiving.

WHAT THE SACRAMENT OF THE ALTAR IS.

The Lord's Supper was instituted by our Lord Jesus Christ the same night in which He was betrayed, while He and the disciples were eating the Passover Supper.¹ What the Lord's Supper is, we learn from the words of Christ Himself as given by the evangelists, Matthew, Mark, and Luke, and by St. Paul.

THE EARTHLY ELEMENTS. The Lord took bread, and when He had given thanks, He brake it and gave it to His disciples. After the same manner also He took the cup containing the wine, when He had supped, gave thanks, and gave it to them. The earthly elements used in this sacrament are, therefore, bread and wine. The wafers which are generally used in Lutheran Churches are unleavened bread—the kind which Christ used—because at the time of the Passover no other but unleavened bread dared be used by the Jews. The wine which Christ used was real wine, not unfermented grape juice. We are not permitted to substitute anything else in place of the earthly elements used by Christ in instituting this sacrament.

THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST. When Christ gave His disciples the bread, He said, Take, eat; this is My body, which is given for you. When He gave them the wine, He said, Drink ye all of it; this cup is the New Testament in My blood, which is shed for you for the remission of sins. Consequently, when we receive the bread in this sacrament, we receive also the body of Christ; and when we receive the wine, we receive also the blood of Christ. And we say of the Sacrament of the Altar, that

Matt. 26:26-28.

Mark 14:22-24.

Luke 22:16, 20.

It is the True Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, under (along with) the bread and wine, given unto us Christians to eat and to drink, as it was instituted by Christ Himself.

The bread and wine do not simply represent the body and blood of Christ (Zwingli's view). The bread and wine are not changed into the body and blood of Christ (the Roman Catholic view, or transsubstantiation). The bread and wine are not united with the body and blood of Christ into a third substance different from both (consubstantiation). The bread and wine remain real bread and wine throughout the administration of the Lord's Supper.² But there is a communion of the bread and wine with the body and blood of Christ,³ so that when the communicant receives the bread he receives also the body of Christ, and when he receives the wine, he receives also the blood of Christ. The bread and wine are the earthly vehicles through which the heavenly gift of Christ's body and blood, which were given and shed for us for the remission of sins, are communicated to DOCTRINES COMPARED. The Reformed, Lutheran, and Roman Catholic doctrines of the Lord's Supper may be compared and illustrated thus:—

| Reformed. | Lutheran. | Roman Catholic. |
|------------------|------------------|------------------------|
| Bread-Body. | Bread-Body. | Bread-Body. |
| Wine-Blood. | Wine-Blood. | Wine-Blood. |

According to the Reformed view, only bread and wine are present; according to the Roman Catholic* view, only the body and blood of Christ are present; according to the Lutheran and Scriptural doctrine, both the bread and wine and the body and blood of Christ are present in the Holy Supper, and are received by every communicant.

A GREAT MYSTERY. The Lord's Supper is a great mystery; but also a great comfort. We cannot understand how Christ can give us His body and blood in this sacrament. But it is the part of faith to take the Saviour at His word. This the Lutheran Church does in her doctrine.

* Because of its false doctrine concerning the Lord's Supper, the Roman Catholic Church has fallen into these additional errors: 1. The Sacrifice of the Mass, in which the priest, by blessing the bread and wine, is supposed to turn them into the body and blood of Christ, and thus to offer an unbloody sacrifice of Christ which is as effective as Christ's death on the cross. 2. The Withholding of the cup from the laity, lest a single drop of Christ's blood should be spilled. 3. The Elevation of the Host, in which the wafer or host is adored as the body of Christ.

QUESTIONS.—1. By what different names is this sacrament known and why? 2. From what do we learn what the Lord's Supper is? 3. What is to be said about the earthly elements? 4. When Christ gave His disciples the bread and the wine, what did He say? 5. What do we receive, therefore, in the Lord's Supper? 6. What is to be said about Zwingli's view? 7. What is to be said about the Roman Catholic view, and what is it called? 8. What other false doctrine besides these two is to be rejected? 9. How may the Reformed, Lutheran, and Roman Catholic doctrines of the Lord's Supper be compared? 10. Is the true doctrine to be rejected because we do not understand it?

SCRIPTURE VERSES.—I Cor. 10:16. The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

READING.—The Institution of the Lord's Supper, Matt. 26:17-30.

CHAPTER XXXVIII.

II. What benefits are derived from such eating and drinking?

They are pointed out in these words: "given and shed for you, for the remission of sins"; namely, through these words, the remission of sins, life and salvation are granted unto us in the sacrament. For where there is remission of sins, there are also life and salvation.

THE BENEFITS DERIVED FROM THE LORD'S SUPPER.

The benefits offered in this sacrament and bestowed upon all who receive it in faith are pointed out in these words of the institution: "given and shed for you, for the remission of sins." Accordingly, the benefits are: "remission of sins, life and salvation." For while only the remission (forgiveness) of sins is mentioned in the institution, yet where there is remission of sins, there are also life and salvation.¹ The Lord's Supper confers all the benefits which Christ secured by His sufferings and death.² Each communicant is assured by the words of Christ Himself that the body which he receives along with the bread was given for him, and that the blood which he receives along with the wine was shed for him, for the remission of his sins. The promise of grace and forgiveness held out to all in the Gospel is thus brought home to each individual in the Lord's Supper. Each believing communicant is individually assured that Christ is his Saviour, and that he has the forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation through Christ's death.

III. How can the bodily eating and drinking produce such great effects?

The eating and the drinking, indeed, do not produce them; but the words which stand here, namely, "given and shed for you for the remission of sins." These words are, besides the bodily eating and drinking, the chief things in the sacrament; and he who believes these words has that which they declare and set forth ; namely, the remission of sins.

¹Rom. 6:22.

²Eph. 1:7.

WHY THE LORD'S SUPPER HAS POWER TO CONFER SUCH BENEFITS.

The eating and the drinking, indeed, do not produce such great effects. For bread and wine have no power in themselves to bestow spiritual blessings,

But the Words which stand here, "given and shed for you, for the remission of sins." It is the Word of God which gives the sacrament its power.³ For Christ has commanded us to use the bread and wine in this way, and has connected the promise of forgiveness with their use. Without the Word, there would be nothing but bread and wine. But Christ fulfils the promise which He has bound up with the bodily eating and drinking, and gives us, with the bread and the wine, His body and blood which were given and shed for us for the remission of sins.

³John 6:63.

And he who believes these Words has that which they declare,⁴ namely, the remission of sins. Forgiveness of sins, life, and salvation are offered to all who partake of this sacrament, but they are accepted and possessed only by those who believe. The impenitent and unbelieving, if they come to the Lord's Table, receive the body and blood of Christ also, but they receive it to their condemnation, because they do not receive it with a penitent and believing heart.⁵

⁴Matt. 8:13.

⁵I Cor. 11:
29.†

IV. Who is it that receives this sacrament worthily ?

Fasting and bodily preparation are, indeed, a good external discipline ; but he is truly worthy and well prepared who believes these words : " given and shed for you, for the remission of sins." But he who does not believe these words or who doubts, is unworthy and unfit ; for the words " for you " require truly believing hearts.

HOW THE LORD'S SUPPER IS TO BE RECEIVED.

Those who come to the Lord's Table must prepare themselves to come worthily, if they would receive the benefits offered in this sacrament.⁶

⁶I Cor. 11: 28.†
II Cor. 13:5.

Fasting and Bodily Preparation are indeed a Good External Discipline. Fasting before the Lord's Supper is not required. It may be practiced by those who desire to do so, if they do it in order to fit themselves for a more earnest participation in the Holy Supper, and not with the idea that fasting constitutes a merit. The true preparation for the Lord's Supper is not bodily, but spiritual.⁷

⁷Joel 2:13.†

He is truly Worthy and Well-prepared, who believes these words, "given and shed for you, for the remission of sins." We are to come worthily, not in the sense of deserving, but of earnestly desiring the benefits offered in the sacrament. We come worthily when we come with penitent and believing heart,⁸—lamenting our sins, longing for forgiveness and for strength to do better, and believing the words spoken to us, "given and shed for thee for the remission of sins."

⁸Ps. 51:17.†
Matt. 11: 28.†

THE CONFESSORIAL SERVICE. The administration of the Lord's Supper is always preceded by the service of confession and absolution, so that those who desire to come to the Lord's Table may prepare themselves to come worthily. At this service we make a public confession of our sins, of our faith in Christ our Saviour, and of our earnest determination by God's grace to lead a holy life. Since Christ has conferred upon the Church the Power of the Keys, saying, "Whosoever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them, and whosoever sins ye retain, they are retained,"⁹ the minister uses this power and pronounces the absolution. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost he declares to all who truly repent and believe, the entire forgiveness of all their sins. On the other hand, to all who are impenitent and unbelieving he declares, that their sins are retained so long as they do not come to true repentance and faith.

Our Church does not require private confession of sins to the pastor; but if any one is troubled in conscience, and desires to make confession to the minister and to obtain the comfort of an absolution pronounced specially upon him, there is provision for private confession and absolution. Such private confessions are regarded by every true pastor as sacredly confidential. (See the "Questions on Confession," which form one of the additions to the Five Principal Parts of the Catechism.)

Why has the Lord's Supper power to confer such benefits? 6. Does every communicant receive the benefits offered? 7. How is the Lord's Supper to be received? 8. What is to be said about fasting as a preparation? 9. What is the true preparation? 10. What is meant by receiving the Lord's Supper worthily? 11. Describe the confessional service? 12. What is to be said about private confession and absolution?

SCRIPTURE VERSES.—I Cor. 11: 29. For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

I Cor. 11: 28. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

Joel 2: 13. And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

Ps. 51: 17. A broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

Matt. 11: 28. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

READING.—The Wedding Garment, Matt. 22: 1-14.
